DIVORCE A DAY IS RECORD OF ALLEN-CO COURT

CUPID LOSING OUT IN RACE, REPORT SAYS

Cotner Reveals Alarming Growth in Domestic Difficulties

NEGLECT PRINCIPAL CAUSE

Marriages Total 717; Requests for Separation 308

While little Dan Cupid was shooting his sharp barbed darts into the hearts of Allen-co lovers in the past year, Demon Divorce was close on his trail, severing the marital bonds.

The score according to records in the court for the fiscal year of 1923, is marriages 717; divorce actions 308. This makes an average of a divorce a day, excluding Sundays and holidays. Divorces according to John T. Cotner, clerk of courts are gaining rapidly on the marriages in the county.

Cases on file in comparison to weddings are on a ratio of approximately 45 divorces asked to every 100 weddings. Soon divorces will equal the marriage at this pace, Cotner declares.

His records show that at the beginning of the fiscal year, there were 66 old divorce actions pending on the docket. During the year 242 new actions were filed.

HEARS 198 CASES
Judge Fred C. Becker sat thru 198 divorces of marital discord and unhappiness. Presumably of court business preventing him from hearing 116 others Judge Becker predicts that in the near future a divorce suit will be filed in Allen-co for every day of the year.

Actions were brought on the following grounds: Adultery, 17; neglect, 146; cruelty, 54; drunkenness, 2; fraud, 2; other causes, 1. Husbands were plaintiffs in 84 cases, wives brought suit in 224. The wife won the decree in 147 cases and the husband was the winner in 51 cases.

Custody of the children was awarded to the father in 12 cases and the mother in 68 cases. While the wife won custody in 27 cases, no record is made of the number in which support for children was allowed.

The total amount of alimony to pass thru the clerk's office, records indicate, was $19,185 for the fiscal year.

WOMAN STABBED TO DEATH

Son Witnesses Killing of Mother by Father at Cleveland

CLEVELAND — (United Press) — A five-year-old boy saw a drunk crazed father stab his mother to death, stab a friend in the arm, then ran trembling and crying across the street to a fire station last night.

The boy is the son of Mrs. Mary Succeri, who was stabbed to death, with a pick, by her husband, Frank, following a quarrel at their home. Succeri was arrested on a charge of murder. He is held in county jail.

Frank Posta, a friend of the family, was stabbed in the left arm, when he attempted to stop the quarrel.

According to Sergeant Johnson, the fight, which resulted in the woman's death, started when Succeri, enraged because his wife had been drinking after the evening meal, hurled a jug of wine to the floor.

The boy was taken to the detention home. Mrs. Succeri's body was taken first to Charity Hospital, then to the county morgue.

MAN ON TRIAL FOR TATTOOING GIRL

Love Letters Read Before Court at Cleveland

CLEVELAND — (United Press) — Love letters filled with endearing terms and signed Mrs. James Wild, were being read to the jury today in the trial of James E. Wild, 23, on charges of forcibly slashing and tattooing his name on the body of Miss Marie Sanke, 19, daughter of a Mayfield, Pa., family.

The letters were written from Mayfield, while the girl was visiting her parents. She admitted having signed the letters Mrs. Wild.

Wild denies he forced the girl to undress and tattooed his name on her body while a friend held her over a pile of broomsacks in a deserted factory building.

"I did tattoo her," he said, "but it was at her own request. She wanted my name on her as a lover's mark."

"He forced me from an automobile and into the factory," Miss Sanke testified. "Then he cut his name on my body and filled in the wounds with India ink."

"He said if he couldn't have me, he would fix me so no other fellow would."

Miss Sanke admits that the name "James Wild" tattooed on her arm was done with her permission, but charges force in the tattooing of her abdomen. Wild was indicted by county grand jury and has been held on $10,000 bond.

All the evidence is expected to be in the hands of the jury late today.

MURDERED IN ATTEMPT TO MAKE ARREST

Noble-co Officer Victim of Alleged Run Runners' Bullets

TWO SUSPECTS ARE JAILED

Killing Occurs When Car is Stopped at Caldwell

CALDWELL, Ohio — (Associated Press) — Two foreigners, George Siebenschuh and Elmer Ferrel, whose homes are said to be in Byessville, a nearby village, were being held in the Noble-co jail here today as suspects in the murder of Sheriff Charles W. Moore early this morning.

MARIETTA — (Associated Press) — Sheriff Charles W. Moore, 55, of Noble-co, was shot and instantly killed shortly before 2 o'clock this morning when he attempted to arrest three alleged whisky runners passing thru the public square of Caldwell, 36 miles north of here.

George Siebenschuh, foreigner of Byessville, a village a few miles north of Caldwell, is being held in the Noble-co jail for alleged complicity in the murder, and Elmer Ferrel, also of Byessville, is under arrest in that village charged with being the other occupant of the murder car.

The sheriff was called from his bed early this morning to investigate a report that whisky runners were headed for Caldwell. Fully dressed he descended to the public square and stopped a strange car, said to be carrying three men. An altercation followed by nearby residents, was followed by four shots and the car sped away. A few minutes later the sheriff was found dead in the gutter, one hand clutching the butt of his revolver in his hip pocket and a bullet hole squarely between his eyes.

POSSIBLE FORMER
A hastily formed posse, headed by ex-Sheriff Kille Groves, gave chase to the alleged murderers and shortly before 6 o'clock overtook a car which tallied with the description of the car seen in Caldwell, just south of Pleasant City, on the Marietta-Cleveland pike. The two Byessville men were in the car. They were arrested and returned to the county jail at Caldwell, where they are said to have implicated a third foreigner. While admitting their presence in Caldwell Monday night they deny that they had anything to do with the shooting.

The sheriff was summoned from his bed by two Caldwell young men whose suspicious of whisky running had been aroused by the peculiar actions of the two occupants of a car which had met with a slight mishap on the pike south of Caldwell.

Sheriff Moore was serving his first term in Noble-co. He is survived by his wife and three sons.

Mayor John Hutt of Caldwell said that many curious were attracted to the jail, but that everything was quiet and that no trouble was expected.

AID IS SENT
COLUMBUS — (Associated Press) — On telephonic request of Probate Judge Headley of Noble-co, Governor Donahue today dispatched two investigators to Caldwell to aid local authorities in bringing to justice the slayers of Sheriff Charles W. Moore at Caldwell early this morning.

The governor sent W. D. Jones, an experienced inspector of the state prohibition department, and H. J. Burton, detective, who figured in the removal of Mayor H. W. Vogt, of Massillon, by Governor Donahue.

Probate Judge Headley had nothing to add to newspaper despatches concerning the shooting, merely stating that it was suspected that rum runners were responsible for the shooting and that two suspects were being held.

Headley told the governor that local officials needed help in questioning the suspects and in other wise ferreting out the perpetrators of the crime.

Barbara Bars Papa's Paddle, Wins Her Way

NEW YORK — (Associated Press) — Barbara Bennett, 17, refuses to be spanked and has left her father, Richard, the actor, for the shelter of her mother's home, Mrs. Bennett revealed today. The father is the star in a new Broadway production, the daughter is in the supporting cast. Bennett and his wife recently agreed to a "friendly" separation, the father taking Barbara to live with him and the mother taking Constance and an older daughter.

Father Bennett laid down a rule for Barbara that she must be home promptly at midnight unless she informed him where she was and with whom. One night Barbara, after the show, went out with Pat Somers, the actor, and his wife, Edith Day. She left a note for her father but he did not get it. Along towards dawn, Bennett, as he tells the story, worried, telephoned his wife and together they waited on the steps for Barbara's return.

Soon a taxi, Barbara stopped out. Bennett declared he would chastise her. She objected. The father objected. A policeman objected. Bennett hit the policeman on the nose. The whole party went to a police station and the sergeant told them to forget it. Barbara went home with her mother.

AUTO KNOCKS OUT INTERURBAN

Flivver Leaves Foe in Corner After One Round Bout

OTTAWA — A Ford touring car, second's name unknown, met an interurban electric, seconded by Motorist T. J. Stockler and Conductor Ralph Webb, in a finish bout early Tuesday at Main-st crossing. The seconds couldn't get their charge to respond to the going for the second round and spectators awarded the Ford a win by technical knockout.

The defeated antagonist received damaging body blows as it met the opposition head-on, injuries resulting to the internal mechanism and producing a condition of hors d' combat.

The car remained stranded; its seconds being unable to produce any response until a sparring partner arrived over the tracks from Lima and removed it from its corner.

The motor left the vanquished to its fate and drove away unscathed. The loser was rushed to the hospital for disabled electric and will require therapy for several days. There were no casualties among the spectators.

GAY PARTY ENDS IN COURT

Six Are Held by Police When Car Is Seized

ONE MAN IS SENTENCED

Others Await Hearing Before Judge Poling Wednesday

An automobile party held Monday afternoon in celebration of the return of one member had a sorrowful end Tuesday morning in Lima criminal court.

Six persons, trapped by police in an automobile containing two men and half a dozen of moonshine and three empty liquor bottles, faced serious charges. One of them, a girl, is held as a delinquent. They were:

W. H. Johnson, Billings, Montana, sentenced to 30 days and $50 on a charge of driving an automobile while drunk. Johnson was delivered in a liquor transportation charge.

H. E. Lacey and A. W. Peters, of Ohio City, and Pauline Stewart and Ralph Goodwin, of Van Wert, all were sentenced under $200 bail for contributing to the delinquency of Edith Crow, 17, of Van Wert. Preliminary hearing is scheduled for 1:30 p. m. Wednesday before Judge Neil R. Poling.

Tip that a recklessly driven automobile loaded with "moonshine" was endangering traffic was investigated by Sergeant Edwards, Motorcop Roney and Detective Taylor.

At Baxter and Main-sts just at dark the sextet was apprehended. One bottle of moonshine was destroyed on the street before police could search the car, they said. Three bottles of whiskey and three empty bottles rewarded the search.

Before Judge Poling Tuesday morning, Johnson said he was home on a visit from Montana and a little celebration party was held. He pleaded guilty to the charge of transportation and driving an automobile while intoxicated. Johnson said the "moonshine" was purchased near Delphos in Allen-co.

Maximum penalty for first offense or driving while drunk was decreed by Judge Poling, who made the following assertion:

"A drunk in charge of an automobile is a menace to other motorists. You might kill someone or else cripple a person for life. I have no compassion for such a person and to make you appreciate the seriousness of your offense I sentence you to 30 days and fine you $50."

The other members of the party, exclusive of the minor, claimed the Crow girl accompanied the party on her own accord and are to stand trial for contributing to her delinquency.

Prosecution and Defense Wind up Final Arguments

Unverferth Demands Electric Chair for Alleged Killer

Jurors in the trial of Charles Shank, charged with the murder of Mrs. William Tenenwalde, were given the case late Tuesday.

Deadly silence filled the little court room at Ottawa as Judge E. R. Eastman charged the jury. He explained the various points of the case and urged that they consider the facts as they have been presented.

Demand that Shank be given the maximum sentence was contained in the closing remarks of B. A. Unverferth, assistant prosecutor, who summed up the case for the state.

PLENENCY ASKED
Pleas for leniency were made by John T. DeFord, attorney for Shank, and the details of the case were reviewed as he had seen them.

Court officials gave the idea as to the length of time the jury will be out on the case. It is believed, however, that only a comparatively short time will be needed.

Mrs. B. D. Griffith, thirteen juror, will be released as soon as the jury starts deliberation. She is one of the first persons in the state to sit as the thirteenth person in the jury box.

Julius S. Ogan, Jr., prosecuting attorney of Putnam-co, made the opening plea Monday afternoon, for the prosecution.

"LAW VIOLATOR"
Ogan branded Shank as a law violator from the time he left the home of his employer, Henry Tenenwalde, of Columbus Grove, Pa., the afternoon of September 4, 1921, until he had committed the murder.

Prosecutor Ogan told of Shank's desire to proceed to the home of his former employer, William Tenenwalde, five miles west of Ottawa, of his entrance to the home to which his presence had been forbidden, of bursting down a door of a bedroom in his quest of Olivia and finally of drawing his gun and shooting dead three members of the family. They were Mrs. William Tenenwalde, mother of his sweetheart, Olivia, 18, of the killing of the girl he loved and his imaginary rival, Lawrence Tenenwalde, 23, cousin of Olivia.

Shank is being tried on an indictment charging first degree murder of Mrs. Tenenwalde.

Tears welled in the eyes of William Tenenwalde, as Prosecutor Ogan continued his plea. Irene Tenenwalde, 14, oldest daughter of the family, sobbed about as the name of her dead mother was mentioned by the prosecutor.

SHANK'S LIFE DEMANDED
He said that the prosecution demanded and would expect the return of a "verdict" of first degree murder against Shank.

Melvin C. Light, of Lima, attorney for Shank, followed Prosecutor Ogan in making his arguments for the defense before the jury.

Light pointed out the beautiful love which had arisen between Shank and the farmer's young daughter how that love had reached a climax in the birth of a child to Olivia. Father by the parents, separated from the child, crossed in a love that was hopeless. Light said that Shank in desperation, lost his senses when returned to the company of Olivia to the pioneer picnic on the day of the fatal shooting and perpetrated any act of which the state may charge him.

Before arguments for the state were begun, the defense prepared 14 special objections which they asked Judge Eastman to read to the jury and the prosecution asked for eight special objections. One of these was thrown out by Judge Eastman following examination upon legal points.

When the mark began to fall Dr. Havenstein warned against the consequences of the collapse of the currency and emphasized the necessity of stabilizing the Reichsbank's gold reserves. The total, $284,038.98, represents the largest aggregate of money awards ever made in Allen-co courts. It is an apt illustration of the rapid growth of county business. Juries who sat in judgment in cases tried were paid $5,799.66.

During the year 254 criminal actions were on the docket in the county, some of which were inherited from the previous year.

ONE MURDER CONVICTION

Leading this list is one indictment for murder, for which the prisoner was convicted. It was the only killing in the county. Three assaults to kill were made, for which two persons were committed to prison.

Indictments for cases of lesser violence were as follows: assault and battery 2; blackmail 2; pointing arms 1; statutory crimes 7; highway robbery 7; other causes 101. Of this list 27 persons were convicted, 12 cases nolle and 85 are pending. Fines were assessed in 4 cases, prison terms in 22, and fine and prison in one case. Forty-eight cases were left over from the previous year.

Passing to other forms of crime the report shows 24 burglaries were committed in the county for which persons were arrested. Embezzlement cases numbered 3; forgery 2; grand larceny 20; petty larceny 22; receiving stolen goods 7; other offenses 14. Convictions were made in 42 cases, 12 were nolle, and 45 were pending at the close of the year. A fine was imposed in one case, prison in 37, and both fine and prison in 4.

FOUR GO TO PRISON

Seven out of eight cases of indictments for carrying concealed weapons, resulted in convictions, four men being sent to prison. Of eighteen other matters in which indictments were brought, 12 cases are still pending, records show. Convictions were made in one instance case, and one case in which the defendant was charged with keeping a house of ill fame.

Costs were assessed at $1,366.31, and fines amounting to $750.

At the beginning of the year, common pleas court docket contained 461 pending cases. During the year 676 new cases were filed, making a total of 1,137 actions.

Judge Fred C. Becker disposed of 656 cases and 58 others tried are pending on error. Most of the remaining 423 will be heard this year.

Appeals court received 58 new Allen-co cases during the year, and disposed of 86 out of 91 on file. Two cases were carried to the Ohio supreme court for review.

SHICK CASE GOES TO TOLEDO

Action to be Brought in U. S.
Court, Lanker Decides

Otto Shick, E. Market-st. soft drink cafe proprietor, arrested Sunday by Sheriff Crosson and deputies assisted by a city detective, will stand trial in Toledo federal court.

Orders to place the illegal possession charge under federal court jurisdiction were issued Tuesday by Police Chief Lanker after a plea of not guilty to the charge had been filed in criminal court Monday by the defendant.

Lanker believes a conviction is possible in federal court despite the fact that Shick destroyed the alleged evidence when raiders swooped down on his place of business.

Should a conviction be returned Lanker plans an unceasing warfare on "blind tigers" and other bootlegging joints operating here with "fronts" and openly defying local law.

ANGLO-AMERICAN LOAN TO GERMANY PLANNED

BERLIN — With regard to reports of the impending conclusion of an Anglo-American loan to Germany, the Boersen Courier says today that negotiations are in progress between a well known Berlin bank and a group of American, British and Dutch financiers for a credit to Germany of 1,400,000,000 gold marks.

The granting of this credit, says the newspaper, is dependent upon the conditions that there be no change in the internal political situation in Germany and that the offer be made only to the Stresemann government.

SMOKE NUISANCE PROTEST MADE

White Mountain Creamery Co. is Object of Complaint

SOLICITOR'S OPINION ASKED

High Schools, Hospital and "Y"
Also Are Involved

Charges that the White Mountain Creamery Co. is causing a public nuisance by the emission of smoke from its factory were presented to city commission Monday night by W. B. Huffman and 16 other citizens living in that section of the city. The protest of the citizens was referred to the city solicitor for report at the next meeting of the city commission.

According to the petition of protest the smoke and ashes from the plant is causing serious injury to the properties of the two people living in the vicinity of the creamery plant. The plant is located on W. Wayne-st and the people in that vicinity are up in arms over the smoke nuisance which they allege is being emitted daily from the plant.

SMOKE NOT NECESSARY

Demand was made in the petition signed by Huffman and others that the company be required to close down its plant. The petitioners claimed in their protest that the nuisance is not necessary and that the entire trouble can be abated if the company will use smoke arresters.

Once again the smoke nuisance becomes a city problem but because there is no city ordinance governing the question, the city commissioners, Monday night felt that they could not take any definite action to abate what the petitioners claim is a menace to public health.

Not only did the people in the vicinity of W. Wayne-st complain about the smoke nuisance alleged to have been created by the White Mountain Creamery Co., but Commissioner Earl Rohn said that the people were also complaining about the smoke from the Y. M. C. A., Central high school and the St. Rita's hospital.

ORDINANCE NEEDED

The commissioners brought out the fact that the city has done everything in its power to abate these nuisances but that there is no law which gives the city power to punish institutions and private corporations for "polluting the air with their foul smoke."

Discussion among the members of the commission brought out the fact that the majority is in favor of enacting some legislation which will curb the evil that exists.

There is, according to the city commissioners, a demand for some legislation which will curb the smoke nuisance. It has been suggested, according to City Manager Bingham that there be an ordinance requiring, under severe penalties, the use of smoke arresters to combat the evil which is making Lima a second Pittsburgh in the matter of smoke.

It used to be folks went to Mexico for the races and the bull fights. And since a certain amendment to Uncle Sam's constitution became effective others have journeyed across the Rio Grande to quaff mescal or pulque. But now it looks like there's another reason. Here she is, Maria Cones, who answers to many certain calls on the Mexican stage.

WATER DEMANDS INCREASE

Report Shows How City Grows
City Manager Says

During a seven year period from 1916 to 1923 the number of emergency calls for service in the water department have more than doubled, according to a special report made to City Manager Bingham Tuesday by Supt. Charles Evans of the water department.

In commenting on this fact the city manager said that the report shows, as nothing else can show the tremendous growth which Lima has enjoyed during the period. He pointed out that while there were only 3,824 emergency calls for service in 1916 there were 8,467 such calls for the first eleven months of 1923.

Figures submitted by Evans show the calls received were 3,626 in 1918; 3,370 in 1917; 3,874 in 1919; 25,633 in 1920; 4,829 in 1922 and 8,467 for the first eleven months of 1923. No figures were given for 1918 and 1921, Bingham said.

He explained that these emergency calls were for setting new meters, turning on and shutting off water and other service of that character.

"The tremendous increase in water service calls shows the great growth which Lima has enjoyed during the period indicated" was the explanation which Bingham gave for the increase in service calls.

H. E. Ewing, of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, will address the Foreign Work club of the Y. M. C. A. at the noon meeting Thursday. He will speak on the social, economic and religious conditions of South America and particularly of Brazil. The meeting will take the form of a luncheon and will be held on the second floor from noon until 1 p. m.

CITY HALL LIGHTS TO COST LESS

Retroactive Reduction Won in Long Time Controversy

After many weeks of negotiation the Ohio Power Co. has agreed to a sharp reduction in the price of electric current furnished for the city building.

Under the terms of an ordinance passed Monday night by the city commission the cost to the city of electricity for the city building is to be six cents per k. w. dating from Nov. 1, 1922. This, according to city officials, brings to an end the controversy which has raged for a year over the price which the city was to have paid for electric current.

The original rate was eight cents per k. w. and it was on this price the power company tried to hold the city. There were back bills amounting to several hundred dollars based on the price originally quoted. Under the agreement reached thru negotiation by Manager Bingham with the power company the city will pay six cents per k. w. The rate as agreed to and embodied in the ordinance provides a reduction in the price from eight cents per k. w. to six cents per k. w. for the city building.

DIVORCEES FIGHT OVER PROPERTY

Couple, Who Lived Apart Under
Same Roof in Court Again

Contention over the division of property belonging to J. Henry Steuarnagel, and Mrs. Clara Steuarnagel, Monroetp was aired in common pleas court Tuesday. The pair were divorced, following a sensational trial July 21, 1921.

Steuarnagel alleges certain articles belonging to him disappeared prior to the sale of the personal property, and he is seeking to recover them.

Among the articles claimed by the plaintiff are two oil cans, a hand saw, a log chain, four potato crates, and a can of white lead.

Judge H. A. Miller, of Celina is hearing the case.

Domestic troubles between the couple came to issue in February 1921, when Steuarnagel instituted divorce action against his wife. She filed a cross complaint alleging cruelty and neglect.

Testimony disclosed that the couple had lived apart under the same roof for 11 years held together by property interests which were somewhat entangling.

On the morning the decree was granted the wife prepared breakfast for herself and mate, and the two rode into Lima in the same automobile, to sit on opposite sides of the court in the divorce battle.

A property settlement was ordered by the court in September, 1921, Steuarnagel brought action to recover certain articles he claimed were missing.

ALLIES AGREE ON COMPROMISE

Understanding as to Demands on Germany Reached

AVERTS IMMEDIATE BREAK

Optimism Prevails in Diplomatic Circles at Paris

(BULLETIN)

PARIS — (Associated Press) — The meeting of the council of ambassadors called for 5 o'clock this afternoon will not be held, it was announced shortly after 4 p. m. Lord Crewe, the British ambassador, notified the secretariat that his government, owing to stress of business was unable to communicate his instructions in time for today's meeting. The instructions are expected to arrive in season for a meeting tomorrow.

PARIS — (Associated Press) — After six days of negotiations, four meetings and five adjournments, the ambassadors' council has hit on a compromise formula for dealing with Germany which even if it only postpones the evil hour of decision, as many maintain, at least also postpones a break in the allied front.

The feeling here today was just as optimistic as it was pessimistic yesterday for the agreement to send a note to Germany has been fully endorsed by the French and Belgian cabinets, and judging from the tone of London, will be endorsed by the British.

It was believed here this morning that the agreement on the proposed note, in which the allies will demand that their military control officers shall be allowed to function under adequate protection, would be completed before the end of the afternoon.

The accepted plan of action seems to throw a considerable burden on General Nollet, head of the mission, who has been recalled to make a further report on the whole situation. If after a due interval General Nollet is convinced that the reich authorities are disobeying the demands of the allies, it is stated that the British government will agree to consider the application of penalties provided they are of non-territorial nature. This arrangement is regarded as at least good enough to furnish a basis for the continuance of the negotiations.

CITY "ROBS PETER TO PAY PAUL"

Money is Taken From Interest
Fund to Meet Salaries

City firemen and policemen are to get their salaries. Provision was made for this by the city commission at their meeting Monday night when by unanimous vote they passed an ordinance borrowing money from the sinking fund to fill the public safety fund to take care of the November salaries for the first half of the month.

No provision was made for the second half of the month or for December but assurances are given in official quarters that when the time comes the men will be paid.

The commission also authorized the transfer of $300 from the depository interest fund to the public health fund to take care of back pay for employees.

Another transfer made from the depository fund to the general fund to meet the city's general operating expenses. That means city officials believe that the city is running close to the boards on its expenses and will have to continue the transfer of funds rather than issue bonds to meet the deficiency.

Sinking commissioners have been called to meet Tuesday afternoon to take action on the bond issue authorized to pay firemen and policemen.

The commission is expected to buy the bonds Tuesday afternoon and give a sinking fund warrant to City Treasurer J. F. Jones. The checks for the firemen and policemen then will be ready so that they can get their money this week, it was announced at city hall Tuesday.

CHAPLAIN REED OF STATE PRISON TALKS TO KIWANIS CLUB

Rev. T. C. Reed, chaplain of Ohio state penitentiary, and founder of the Intra-Wall Correspondence Association, was the speaker at the Kiwanis luncheon held at the Barr hotel Tuesday. Rev. Reed spoke in the absence of E. C. Stork, an ex-convict who served a term in the state prison, but who is now lecturing on behalf of the Intra-Wall Correspondence Association.

Rev. Reed said the association which was recently incorporated is already meeting with big success. He said its object is to give men in prison an education and to teach them the right way of living.

The association should be the means of revolutionizing the life of the average prisoner. Many of them when they leave prison they are embittered against society and few decide to live a straight life. Now, however, prisoners are educated and taught a sense of responsibility so that when they are free again 90 per cent of them begin life anew and become good citizens.

Miss Thomas, daughter of Warden Thomas of the state penitentiary, will address the Business & Professional Women's club at a dinner meeting at the Elks club Tuesday at 6 p. m.

CHURCH ORGA 4 ZED COLUMBUS. — Central M. E. church here has organized a junior church for children between the ages of six and fourteen. The children will elect an official board, ushers and a choir.

AGREEMENT MADE FOR REPAIRS ON N. JAMESON

Agreement has been reached between the city and some of the property owners in the half block of N. Jameson-av between High-st and the alley south of that street, for payment of repairs to the street.

Complaint was made to the city by Michael Lynch that the teams of contractors working on the sewer in Jameson-av using half the block as a base for their machinery, had practically destroyed that half block of the street. The street was put down 11 years ago, according to City Manager Bingham and the half block in question has never been resurfaced.

The city has agreed to pay one third of the cost of repairing the street at the property owners will pay the other two thirds. Lynch has agreed to the proposal in so far as his properties are concerned, according to Bingham and has also agreed to get the other property owner to pay his proportion on the repair work. The city's share will come out of the street repair fund, Bingham said Tuesday. He said the work will cost about $2.50 per front foot.

TURKS BAR ALIEN PHYSICIANS

Foreign Dentists Also Shut Out
by Ottoman Law

BAN IS PLACED ON LIQUOR

Many Changes Made Since Allies
Left Constantinople

CONSTANTINOPLE — (Associated Press) — The allied forces evacuated this ancient metropolis a short time ago and two days later saw the official end of all foreign authority in Constantinople.

It has been a period of change, both physical and psychological. The Turk has come into his own and is struggling with the problems that come with it. At this writing the Grand National Assembly, down in remote Angora, is dealing with a new constitutional form of government, trying to make a more workable instrument than the present cumbersome system. The suggestions range from a modification of the American system up and down, and the indications are that it will be a long and arduous task.

All the laws adopted by the Angora government and postponed in application until the evacuation, are being put into effect. First is prohibition, which was suddenly clamped on in the Constantinople area, coming like a lightning stroke on the liquor business and the consuming public for despite the Moslem law against the use of spirits or wine, a very considerable portion of the Musselman population, not to mention the non-Turkish Ottoman element, is addicted to drink. The popular native intoxicant is douzko, a sort of absolute preparation. It is said that the present stock of drink in this city alone constitutes a seven-year supply. Some five or six thousand establishments, employing 30,000 people, are closed. Drunkenness in public is punished by a bastinado of forty strokes and heavy fines.

Now the law against foreign physicians, dentists is in effect. Those who were not registered before the World War is in effect. They are barred from practice. The Russian hospital and several others, started since the war, have been ordered shut.

There are numerous other such laws that apply to foreigners, for the Turk seems bound to develop an intensified nationalism in proof of his new freedom. That he is not wholly confident of his own ability, however, is shown in announcement from Angora that the government finds it necessary to employ a certain number of foreign experts.

The exodus of Greek merchants is regarded here as a sad thing. With the Armenians he has formed the mercantile element, conducting most of the shops, restaurants and other retail and wholesale commerce. It is reported that the government is taking steps to replace the Greeks and Armenians with Germans and Austrians. One report is that more than 3,000 business men of these nationalities are to arrive here this autumn. Already German merchant ships are beginning to come in with German made goods of every description.

OFFERS DIVORCE REMEDY COSHOCTON. — If every married person went to church, divorces would be but less than half, it is asserted by the Rev. C. J. McGee. He declared statistics showed that by far the greater number of participants in divorce cases are not members or attendants of churches.

WILL OPERATE BUS LINE TOLEDO. — The Community Traction Company, operating Toledo's street car system, has decided to engage in the bus transportation business as an integral part of its system.

Frank E. Harman, chairman of the roll call of Allen-co Chapter, American Red Cross, Tuesday morning issued a call for more volunteer workers to solicit memberships in the organization.

"Owing to the fact that another civil organization is holding its annual campaign this week, many men who usually assist the Red Cross are not able to assist. The Red Cross therefore is finding it difficult to find workers," Chairman Harman said.

ICELAND TAPPING TREASURES

Land of Sagas and Eddas is Entering New Era

FISHING IS BIG INDUSTRY

Country Harnessing Natural Powers and Resources

COPENHAGEN. — (Associated Press) — We all have heard about Iceland of old, the land of the sagas and eddas and of mighty warriors, but very few know about modern Iceland, the tale of her recent development and the plans for harnessing her great natural powers and resources make just as interesting reading as those old sagas.

Iceland's minister to Denmark, Sveinn Bjornsson, tells of the wonderful resources of his country. Some of these are highly developed others are barely tapped, and some have not been touched at all. Among the former are the fishing grounds, the richest in the world. Six weeks recently produced an export surplus of 45,000,000 pounds of herring.

The Iceland herring contains a higher percentage of fat than any other herring and is much sought after, particularly in the Scandinavian countries. Only the finest herring are exported, and before export are subject to close inspection by government agents. A small quantity goes to the United States.

The cod fishery is, however, the greatest industry of Iceland. During 1921 no less than 27,500 tons of dried and salted cod were exported chiefly to Great Britain and the other European countries.

The export trade of Iceland was in danger of being seriously interfered with through the refusal of Spain and Portugal to allow imports of Icelandic fish as long as the import into Iceland of Spanish and Portuguese wines was barred by the Icelandic prohibition act, but now a working agreement has been arrived at, and Spain and Portugal have both signed trade agreements with Iceland in the "most favored nation" form.

For the Icelandic farmer, salted lamb and sheep make the biggest export article. Denmark and Norway are the chief markets for this commodity which is used in providing food for the army.

The quality of Icelandic lamb and sheep is excellent, the natural consequence of the wonderful grazing grounds in the mountains where the animals browse all the summer.

32 SHADES GIVEN LIVING WOOD

Experiments Made in Coloring
Wood of Standing Trees

SAP CONFINED TO ROOTS

Dye Solution Spread Thru all of Its Branches

PHILADELPHIA — (Associated Press) — By feeding dye to the living wood according to S. Weinberg, a chemist of this city, trees can be colored thirty-two different shades, including apple green, olive green, ebony, weathered oak, and salmon pink.

Experiments with a dye, which Weinberg has discovered, are being conducted in the botanical gardens of the University of Pennsylvania with three trees which have been presented to him by the department of botany.

Introduced into the base of the tree, the dye is diffused thru the branches by the natural functioning of the tree, Weinberg said. Evidence is furnished by the presence in the botanical gardens of a dark blue tree, a vivid green poplar, and a salmon pink maple.

Assisted by Dr. Herbert Henner, of Germany, Weinberg also has experimented with a purple apple tree in Lansdowne, Pa.

Wood, which has undergone the coloring process, is more durable than the ordinary wood used in the manufacture of furniture, according to Weinberg, who mixes a preservative with the dye solution to be spread thruout the tree. The result, he said, is wood stained thru and thru, and not only on the surface, so that scratches and dents will not mar its presentability when made into furniture.

The dyeing operation is not a new one, but Weinberg declared efforts heretofore have not been attended with success. Weinberg's method is to confine the sap to the roots of the tree by a series of borings at its butt. Above this the coloring is permitted to flow in, to be drawn up to the very top of the tree by pressure created, Weinberg said, when moisture evaporates in the cells of the tree. The dye is of the consistency of sap, is insoluble, and cannot be removed.

Trees of any degree of hardness will respond to the treatment, and the tallest of them will be thoroughly permeated in two days, according to the experiments. The bright green poplar in the university botanical garden is sixty feet tall. Cost of the dye is nominal, less than a dollar being required to change the hue of the biggest tree in the East.

Once the dye is injected, the tree is killed, so that the lumber does not have to be weathered so long as untreated wood. "It really is similar to embalming," Weinberg declared. "A certain element kills the pests that rot the wood."

BETTER BEER AND CHEAPER WATER

Good News is True Altho It's in Sweden, not America

STOCKHOLM — (Associated Press) — The old adage that troubles come not singly has been reversed in Sweden; at least, that is what the bulk of the population in Stockholm think. One day they learn that the charges for gas and electricity will be greatly reduced during the winter, the next that water rates also will be cut and the third that beer is to be made stronger. And all these reports are true.

The Swedish Riksdag has voted to permit the increase of the alcohol content in beer from 3.6 percent to 4 percent by volume, or from 2.8 percent to 3.2 percent by weight. Since Stockholm voted wet on last year's national referendum on prohibition, which was lost, there is general satisfaction in the new legislation. The consumption of hard liquors in Sweden, however, is steadily on the decrease, official reports showing that the total consumption in 1922 was 30 percent less than in 1920, and 42 percent less than in 1913.

The cutting of gas costs in Stockholm 25 percent lower than the present rate, and of electricity 12 1/2 percent, to take effect at the end of this year, is the result of profits earned by the Stockholm city gas and electrical plants during the last two years. Water rates for the same reason, will be lowered four percent from the present schedule.

In announcing these reductions the administration of the municipal industrial report that the three utilities of gas, electricity and water had earned a surplus last year of $3,400,000, and that present conditions indicate similar profits next year. This gratifying success is due to rapidly increasing consumption on the one hand and a marked decrease in the cost of production on the other.

FORMER CROWN PRINCESS IS AUTO SHOW VISITOR

BERLIN — Former Crown Princess Cecelia and her four sons were among the visitors to the recent Berlin automobile show.

The five members of the former imperial family came to the show as the guests of the makers of a well-known motorcar and returned home in one of the model cars of this firm.

The former crown princess is always recognized by Berlin crowds, which pay her great courtesy. Even the most rabid of the anti-monarchists seem to have great admiration for the dignified wife of the ex-king at Wieringen. She lives in a small villa at Potsdam, with her five children, and moves about as unostentatiously with her children as any other well-bred German woman. Occasionally she appears at the opera or the theatre, and it is not unusual to see her shopping in Berlin.

Motorists Pay Twice What U. S. Spends on Roads

WASHINGTON — Owners of motor vehicles pay to the federal government in taxes each year more than double the amount spent by the government on account of federal-aid highway and forest road construction, together with all administrative outlays, according to Secretary Wallace of agriculture, who has charge of the administration of the highway funds.

Since 1917 the government has been collecting a tax on the selling price of motor vehicles, tires and automobile accessories, and also a tax on the use of passenger automobiles for hire. On June 30 this year $589,012,021 had been collected from these sources. Expenditures on highway by the government in that time totaled $264,782,216, or 45 percent of the amount taken in.

KEROSENE LAMPS COMING INTO USE IN GERMANY

BERLIN — Kerosene lamps are coming into rather general use in German cities because of the high prices of electricity and gas and the lighting companies over prices. Because of delay in rendering bills after the meters are read the rates for light are frequently many times as high as they were when the light was actually used.

WORK OF CHURCH CRITICIZED

Research Institute Hits at Operations in Indiana

TELLS OF FIRE HAZARDS

Declares Such Buildings Should Not be Permitted

NEW YORK—(Associated Press) Low standards of spiritual literacy exist among Protestants all over the state of Indiana, according to the report of the Indiana Survey of Religious Education, the first volume of which, entitled "The Religious Education of Protestants in an American Commonwealth," has just been published under the auspices of the Institute of Social and Religious Research, formerly the Committee on Social and Religious Surveys of the city.

This committee was organized in January, 1921. It conducts and publishes studies and surveys and promotes conferences for their consideration. The committee's aim is to combine the scientific method with the religious motive. It cooperates with other social and religious agencies but is itself an independent organization.

The committee is composed of John R. Mott, chairman; Ernest D. Burton, secretary; Raymond D. Fosdick, treasurer; James L. Barton, W. H. P. Faunce and Kenyon L. Butterfield. Galen M. Fisher is executive secretary. The survey upon which the report is based was made under the direction of Walter S. Athearn.

Many church buildings in Indiana subject their congregations weekly to fire hazards which the civil authorities ought not to permit; the township or district supervisors of rural Protestant Sunday schools are experienced and untrained; the supervisory machinery throughout the state is inoperative most of the time; the Sunday school teachers as a class are untrained and "the untalented marks of pedagogical teachers" are observable, the report says.

MOST TYPICAL. But it is plainly indicated that no other state dare point the finger of scorn at Indiana on account of the conditions shown by the survey to exist there, that state having been chosen as the field for this exhaustive study of moral and religious conditions because it was regarded by experts in religious education as the most typical American state.

"The lack of coordination within the denomination and of the denomination with the general movement for religious education," says the report, "is the most outstanding weakness revealed by the survey of denominational Sunday school agencies. Not a denomination was found which had unified its various boards into a single religious educational leadership, to its own satisfaction and the survey failed to reveal a denomination which had satisfactorily related itself to the general Sunday school movement. As a result of this failure of coordination, there is overwhelming evidence of friction, wastefulness and inefficiency."

The survey, which was completed at a cost of $100,000, shows that of the 2,433,492 people in the state 25,814 are Catholic; 25,833 are Jewish; 3,670 belong to other non-Protestant faiths; 793,938 are members of Protestant churches, and 61 per cent of the entire population, or

1,734,137, are not members of any church. Of the children and youth under 25 years of age, 137,940 are Catholic; 12,650 are Jewish; 2,820 belong to families of other non-Protestant faiths; 486,140 are Protestant and 748,840 are nominally Protestants but not identified with any church. There are 615,150 children in Sunday school, parochial schools, or other religious schools, and 551,670 children, nominally Protestant, who are not receiving moral or religious instruction under the direction of any religious body.

2 THIRD PARTY TICKETS MAY BE IN THE FIELD

CHICAGO — Two third party tickets may be in the field in the 1924 presidential race.

Members of the "committee of 48" and leaders of the Farmer-Labor party conferred here today on a presidential nominee, J. A. H. Hopkins, New York, head of the "committee of 48," held meetings behind closed doors yesterday and continued the conference today. It was indicated that the names of Henry Ford, Senator LaFollette of Washington, and Senator Borah of Idaho, were the center of attention.

John J. Fitzpatrick, president of the Chicago Federation of Labor, and prominently identified with the original farmer-labor party movement, made it known that he may have different views on the subject. From other sources it was learned Fitzpatrick may head a separate group.

WALTON IS OUSTED BUT FIGHTS ON

Will Carry His Case to U. S. Courts Tomorrow

INJUNCTION TO BE ASKED

Oklahoma Governor Impeached by Unanimous Senate Vote

OKLAHOMA CITY — (Associated Press) — J. C. Walton's gubernatorial career, as spectacular as it was brief, is ended.

Deposed by the verdict of a senate court of impeachment which late yesterday found him guilty of charges of moral turpitude, corruption in office, neglect of duty and incompetence, his term of office as Oklahoma's fifth governor was broken off after little more than ten months, sensational to the last.

But as his successor prepared formally to take over the reins of government today, Walton girded for a last desperate effort to retain the office by invoking the aid of the United States court, clinging tenaciously to the plea that he has not been given a fair trial, with the promise of more dramatic yet to come.

His next move will be made tomorrow when his legal staff appears before a federal judge here for a rehearing of his application for a retroactive injunction to annul the action of the court of impeachment. That failing, an appeal would be taken, as a last resort, to the United States supreme court, accompanied by a petition for a writ of superseas to declare him the incumbent until the case is thrashed out before the tribunal.

The deposed executive's original application was denied the day before the impeachment trial opened and observers saw scant likelihood that the decision will be reversed after the rehearing. Neither is it probable, they say, that the United States supreme court will intervene.

Walton's removal was decreed by unanimous vote of the senate court after he had been convicted upon 11 of the 16 impeachment articles upon which he was prosecuted and his application had been denied for a new trial.

The record showed verdicts for acquittal on five of the charges. The votes on two of the articles were unanimous for conviction and the others upon which guilty verdicts were passed were voted by substantial majorities.

Six of the original 22 charges upon which the executive was impeached by the lower house of the state legislature, were dismissed on motion of the board of prosecution. All of those grew out of Walton's martial law declarations.

The court today will consider a motion to assess all costs of the trial against the deposed governor.

Walton last night angrily refused to comment. Lieutenant Governor M. E. Trapp, who has been acting executive since Walton's suspension before his trial and who automatically becomes governor, declared he would address the legislature within the next two or three days.

SLAYER OF BABY ATTEMPTS SUICIDE IN CLEVELAND JAIL

CLEVELAND — Cosmo Ferranto, sentenced to die in the electric chair February 28, for killing a baby, attempted suicide in county jail this morning by leaping head foremost from the top bunk in his cell after overpowering a trusty.

The fall to the cement floor cut a two inch gash in the condemned man's head. He was found by Deputy Sheriff Galli, who was on guard in the cell block, and who was summoned by the trusty. Ferranto is not dangerously hurt.

He had hurled the trusty down, leaped upon the cell block and hurled himself headlong to the floor before he could be halted.

NEW TREATIES TO BE ACTED ON

Added to Legislative Burden Before Congress

WASHINGTON. — (Associated Press) — Added to the legislative burden of the coming session of congress is to be the presentation to the senate of several new treaties, for whose reception arrangements already have been made by President Coolidge and Secretary Hughes with Chairman Lodge of the senate foreign relations committee.

With the Harding proposal for American participation in the world court already before the senate, the new treaties which are to be transmitted to the senate upon its reconvening include:

The treaty of Lausanne between the United States and Turkey, reestablishing relations with Turkey and containing provisions governing commercial as well as diplomatic intercourse.

The Mexican treaty, which paved the way for recognition by the United States of the Obregon government and provides for protection of American property rights in Mexico, as negotiated by John Barton Payne and Charles H. Warren, special envoys of President Harding.

The Hughes-Carson treaty extending the shore limits of American operations against rum runners and providing for entrance under seal of "ship stores" of liquor on British vessels.

In addition, the Canadian Halibut fisheries treaty is to be resubmitted to the senate for amendment to meet Canadian objections. This was ratified last winter but turned down by Canada because a senate amendment added during ratification conflict with Canadian law barring British halibut fishermen from Canadian markets in competition with Canadian fishermen. It is planned to have the senate strike out the provision affecting British fishermen.

Which of the pending treaties will receive first attention is yet to be determined by the foreign relations committee.

VIGOROUS CONTEST IS FACED BY REPUBLICANS

WASHINGTON — Republicans of the next house of representatives face the likelihood of a vigorous contest over the election of a floor leader to succeed former Representative Mondell, of Wyoming, despite the efforts of some to avoid such a fight for fear it might threaten party unity.

Announcement of the candidacy of Representative Graham of Illinois, in opposition to Representative Longworth of Ohio, for the floor leadership, gave a severe jolt to the hopes of avoiding a contest. Representative Graham's decision to oppose the selection of the son-in-law of former President Roosevelt was made known last night after he had held a lengthy conference with about a dozen representatives from almost as many states who have been urging him to seek the leadership at the Republican organization conference to be held December 1.

PAVE 4 STREETS, CITY AGREES

Commission Acts Favorably on Improvement Requests

Cold weather may be coming on but property owners are still asking for city improvements as is revealed by petitions which were presented to city commission Monday night. These include the following:

Paving Hamilton-st from Grand-av to Cortland-av, petition granted. Paving Marion-av from Baxter to the west line of lots, 13,679 to 13,695, petition granted.

Paving Lakewood-av from Glenwood-av to Nixon-av, petition granted.

Paving E. Circular-st from Main-st to S. Central-av petition granted. This petition was originally presented to the commission with a request for asphalt paving and the request was turned down so the petition was re-recited without specifying the kind of paving and the commission then granted it. It is likely, officials said Monday night, that that street will be of hillside brick.

HARBIN NOT SUCH A WICKED CITY

Far Eastern Reputed Outpost of Sin Loses Reputation

HARBIN. — (Associated Press) — This city, reputed to be the last outpost of an open and unabashed, has been found to be less wicked than supposed.

Those morally atrocious but sometimes alluring forms of amusement that have given to the world the phrase, "demi-monde," and long since found to have abandoned their traditional haunts in Paris, Vienna, Havana and Buenos Aires, were supposed to have found refuge in Harbin.

Even Shanghai, known as a man's town and a port which humor has portrayed as a city of lotus and poppy where people do as they please, had been given second place to Harbin in the matter of immoral doings. The truth is, neither Shanghai nor Harbin resemble Babylon to any great degree. In Shanghai the public is all worked up over the question: Can a cabaret girl be good? In Harbin the problem is to get cabaret girls.

There are many women, and girls from the grooves of Moscow and Petrograd and from nearer cities who are here to amuse and be amused, but above all to get in this wild, new place a livelihood or perhaps a small fortune which some day they hope to take back to relatives. But there are plenty of good women, too. The fresh, really faces of women lately peasants or the daughters of peasants abound. And like the women of all new towns who have men and children to care for they work hard.

No girl is too young to manage to obtain a lipstick.

And so the people bent on business alone play and smile and wait, keeping what they can with the Chinese authorities and, being the "Reds" will not come to make things worse.

FARES REDUCED

CANTON — Council last night passed an ordinance repealing the franchise authorizing six cent fare on the city lines of the Northern Ohio Traction Co. and substituting a five cent fare effective in 30 days.

NEW PARTY TO BE FORMED MAY 30

Convention at Minneapolis is Called for That Date

PROGRESSIVE MOVEMENT

Candidate for President Will be Selected

CHICAGO — (Associated Press) — The third party movement set under way here by a meeting of representative from progressive political organizations has been given tangible form with a call for a national convention at Minneapolis or St. Paul, May 30 1924, for the purpose of naming presidential and vice presidential candidates in the name of the Progressive party. Farmer-Labor party or such other names as the third party voters may have established in their states.

Those attending the gathering here pledged "that the calling of this convention shall be based upon the abolition of special privilege." They described special privilege as meaning "the unjust economic advantage by possession of which a small group controls our national resources, transportation, industry and credit, stifles competition, prevents opportunity for development of all, and thus dictates conditions under which we live."

They described special privilege as meaning "the unjust economic advantage by possession of which a small group controls our national resources, transportation, industry and credit, stifles competition, prevents opportunity for development of all, and thus dictates conditions under which we live."

INVITATION EXTENDED

An invitation to join in the movement was extended to "all progressives and all progressive organizations, partisan or non-partisan, which are in accord with the principles set forth by the Chicago meeting called among other things, for 'public control of natural resources by taxation of all land values; public ownership of railroads, canals and pipe lines; governmental banking, by which the government shall enter the banking system, reserving to itself the sole right to issue currency and to determine the amount of currency which may be issued; and equal rights, economic, legal and political, for all citizens, and all civil rights, including free speech, free press and peaceable assembly, as guaranteed by the constitution.'

MANY RESERVATIONS ARE MADE FOR TUESDAY MEET

Business and professional women of the city have their plans all completed for the dinner at the Elks home Tuesday at 6:30 p. m., when Miss Amanda Thomas, daughter of the warden of the state penitentiary, will be the principal speaker.

Reports to the committee show the largest dinner reservation list in the history of the local club, about 50 women having signified their intention of attending the dinner. Miss Thomas will discuss the subject of education among the inmates of the prison. Her work is along the lines of that being done by the Intra Wall Association.

U. S. FILES COUNTER CLAIM FOR $2,000,000

WASHINGTON — A counter claim seeking recovery of nearly $2,000,000 is the government's answer to Swift and Company's allegation that the government owes it about $1,500,000 on a war-time contract for army bacon.

A brief prepared by the department of justice says the existence of such a contract has not been proved and accuses the company of fraud, violation of its food administration license by taking greater profits than permitted and other offenses. It asks recovery of $1,571,832 for alleged excessive charges between September, 1918, and March 1919, and the return of $422,242 profits which it avers were forfeited because of the company's misconduct.

G. F. Swift, vice-president of the company, in a statement urged that public judgment be reserved until the court of claims reached a decision on the case.

PAVING COSTS ON DOWN GRADE

New Estimates Show Lowest Rates in Recent Months

Reports from estimating boards on city improvements show there has been a slight decline in the cost of paving, when measured by the front foot, according to the report submitted to the city commission at its meeting Monday night.

Reports were submitted to the commission by the estimating boards on the following streets:

Albert, Harrison to Sugar-sts cost per front foot, $7.018.

Woodlawn-av. Market to High-sts. cost per front foot, $8.32.

Ohio-st. Metcalf to McDonald-sts. cost per front foot, $6.562.

The last figure given is the lowest that has been given for paving work in this city in a number of months, according to city officials.

It is claimed this marks the beginning of a downward movement in the cost of street improvements, which will be cheerful news to the property owners on streets yet to be paved.

Safe Fat Reduction

Reduce, reduce, reduce, is the slogan of all fat people. Get thin, be slim, is the cry of fashion and society. And the overfat writhing their hands in mortification and helplessness, revolting as nauseating drugs, afraid of violent exercise, dreading the unwelcome and unsatisfying diet, until they hit upon the harmless Marmola Prescription and learn through it that they may safely reduce steadily and easily without any change in their mode of life, but harmlessly, secretly, and quickly reaching their ideal of figure, with a smoother skin, better appetite and health than they have ever known. And now comes Marmola Prescription Tablets from the same famous harmless formula as the Marmola Prescription. It behooves you to learn the satisfactory, beneficial effects of this great, safe, fat reducer by giving to your druggist one dollar for a box or sending a like amount to the Marmola Company, 442 Woodward Avenue, Detroit, Mich., with a request that they mail you a box of Marmola Prescription Tablets.—Adv.

CHIMNEY OF HOME IS MONUMENT TO WOMAN FAMED FOR COOKING

Germans Recognize Compiler of Noted Recipe Book

TASTY DISHES LIFE WORK

Too Busy to Marry or Hobnob With Royalty, She Said

MUNSTER — (Associated Press)

—Every school girl and every woman in Germany knows the name of Henriette Davidis, but it was not until recently that the government officially acknowledged her as one of the country's benefactors.

Henriette came from a very humble parentage, and it is said she did not care a snap about royalty and pomp and ceremony, and "wasting her time running up to Berlin to see what the city folks were doing."

Instead, she devoted her efforts toward the education of young women, and compilation of a cook book which was her chief aim in life.

Henriette Davidis began her cooking experiments about a hundred years ago at her parents' home in Wengern near Witten on the Ruhr. As a girl she became famous locally for her cookery and the people often came for miles for a taste of her home made bread and cakes.

Henriette did all her cooking in an old fashion kitchen with its great brick stove with enormous stone chimney. Henriette's father was a minister and there were frequent guests at the house, and when a particularly tempting dish was prepared, and liked, she made notes, and in years to come it was publication of these recipes in book form which gave her fame throughout Germany.

Plain, substantial cooking was Henriette's forte, but her cakes and pastries are known today by nearly every housewife in the land. Henriette died in 1876. Some time ago the weather beaten frame house of the Davidis family—the house with the old fashioned kitchen where Henriette had perfected her culinary art—was torn down to make way for railroad tracks which ran thru the front yard of the old Davidis place.

Before the work of demolishing the house had been completed the local population took steps to preserve the ancient stone chimney of the Davidis home in remembrance of Wengern's most distinguished citizen. The Berlin government was appealed to, and as the chimney is upon state property official recognition of Henriette's services have been taken.

Orders have gone out that the stones must remain intact and that the chimney is to stand always as a monument to the memory of Henriette Davidis—who was too busy with her cook book to even think of marriage—with a bronze plaque telling of her achievements and "of her services to mankind."

17 GIVEN CITIZENSHIP PAPERS DURING YEAR

Greeks and German were the predominant nationalities among aliens naturalized in Allegheny county during the year according to the annual report of the clerk of courts. Four from each country were admitted as citizens.

Sixteen men and one woman were given rights as citizens. The nationalities are Great Britain and Canada 1; England 1; Germany 4; Holland and Belgium 1; Ireland 1; Italy 1; Russia 1; Wales 1; Greece 4; Macedonia 2. Recapitulation shows that Anglo-Saxon and Teutonic races held a slight balance in the numbers admitted.

Records show that while a number of nationalities as a rule wait a number of years before perfecting citizenship, former subjects of Greece are becoming naturalized as rapidly as the laws will permit.

Glasses Change For All Events Is Style Decree

NEW YORK — (United Press)

—Eyeglasses have become an adjunct of beauty and style, as well as vision. Eyeglasses and spectacles for every occasion are being shown. Some are made of most precious metals, and are given added value by the profuse use of precious stones.

An optician must also be a modiste of the eye. He must dress the eyes in the fashion most befitting various styles of facial architecture.

Girls are having eyeglasses made to match their dresses. The lens are colored to match the hue of the gown. Charles Schwab, steel magnate, recently spent $1,000 for a complete set of up-to-date eyeglasses, it is stated.

"Oxfords" are the approved style for evening wear. They are eyeglasses which fold up, being carried in the waistcoat of a gentleman and dangling on a rich chain when worn by women.

Made of platinum white and yellow gold, they also are decorated with diamonds.

Lorgnettes, expensively decked with diamonds and onyx, appearing as a pendant worn about the neck until a secret button is pressed, are the rage among the 400.

For those unfortunates who must give weakened eyes constant assistance, "skeleton" eyeglasses, everything the name indicates, light in weight, are considered very good form for ordinary wear by the eyeglass fashion creators. A combination shell and gold rim also is good taste.

The face-hiding, ponderous shell-rimmed spectacles, first worn by actors and authors, radiating an air of intelligence and dignity, and later adopted by bootblack and butcher boys, should now be worn only in the library or other hiding place.

Increased general participation in amateur athletics has brought about a new vogue in spectacles. Tennis players, golfers, hunters and others are wearing large flexible spectacles that look like old-fashioned automobile goggles made modern. The shafts which fit behind the ears can be bent at will and there are hinges on the nose rest.

For polo players back-lot baseball and sturdy kiddies who are inclined to be a bit rough in their daily antics, there is a new type spectacle which has an outer rim as a protecting wall and unbreakable glass as lens.

They resemble the head-gear worn by millionaire prize fighters who do not want their soothing features marred by cauliflower ears.

"I must rush home and change my dress and glasses," will be the new cry.

If You Need A Medicine

You Should Have the Best

Have you ever stopped to reason why it is that so many products that are extensively advertised, all at once drop out of sight and are soon forgotten? The reason is plain—the article did not fulfill the promises of the manufacturer. This applies more particularly to a medicine. A medicinal preparation that has real curative value almost sells itself, as like an endless chain system, the remedy is recommended by those who have been benefited, to those who are in need of it.

A prominent druggist says "Take for example Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a preparation I have sold for many years and never hesitate to recommend, for in almost every case it shows excellent results, as many of our customers testify. No other kidney remedy has so large a sale."

According to sworn statements and verified testimony of thousands who have used the preparation, the success of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is due to the fact, so many people claim, that it fulfills almost every wish in overcoming kidney, liver and bladder ailments, corrects urinary troubles and neutralizes the uric acid which causes rheumatism.

You may receive a sample bottle of Swamp-Root by airtel post. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., and enclose ten cents; also mention this paper. Large and medium size bottles for sale at all drug stores.—Adv.

HOW MUCH ARE YOUR LEGS WORTH? ALL DEPENDS ON THEIR EDUCATION

(BY JOSEPHINE VAN DE GRIFT)

NEW YORK — (Special) Put your best foot forward. Regard your five toes. Now, wriggle 'em. That little action, six p.m. today, is worth exactly $8,850.88 to you.

At least so says the National Industrial Conference Board, which places a value of $3.778 upon a foot and $5.164.96 upon a leg.

But if that foot and that leg were educated—well, some folks are making as much as $400 a week from their educated legs. The only thing rocking the ranks of the educators at present seems to be whether a foreign educated stepper is worth as much as the home-trained variety.

PRETTIEST
"American legs are prettiest," sings Monsieur Tarasof.

"But Russian ones command higher salaries," tossed back Monsieur Anatole Hourman.

Monsieur Tarasof was for 13 years premier danseur at the Imperial Theater at Moscow. Monsieur Hourman was educated at the Imperial Ballet in Petrograd, the same school which produced Anna Pavlova. Both, however, have deserted the haunts of the Bolshevik to found schools in New York where American girls may learn to pirouette and turn and point their toes properly.

It is not the first time that differences have arisen between educators.

"Regard," entreats Monsieur Tarasof, "Miss Lina Basquette, whom artists declare the most beautiful they have ever seen. For her dancing she could easily have a salary of $500 a week."

"Hein!" retorts Monsieur Hourman. "Does not Ann Pavlova get $2000 a performance?"

"But this Miss Basquette," pleads Monsieur Tarasof, "beautiful as she is, there are others—beautiful American girls. I go down the street—I perceive the little small ankles. I draw in my breath. 'Behold, I cry—"

UGLIEST DANCER

"At the Russian Imperial Ballet," hisses Monsieur Hourman, "there is Mlle. Lubova Cherkoff, the ugliest dancer in Russia with the most ungainly legs of any dancer extant. But she is the most talented and beloved of the ballet mistresses."

On one thing only are they agreed. It takes less time nowadays to turn out a first class dancer. Seven years was the time allotted in Petrograd. An American girl of average intelligence can turn the trick in two years. And the cost is slightly more than a university education. With class lessons at $40 a month and private lessons anywhere from $10 to $25 an hour, the whole process should be covered nicely for $10,000!

Educated legs! But they can command a salary of $400 a week, while graduates just out of college rarely make $25.

And, Kellogg's is actually delicious, its nut-like flavor adding greatly to the enjoyment of eating cereal. Eat at least two table-spoonfuls each day; in chronic cases, with each meal.

How to Make Pine Cough Syrup at Home

There is no equal for prompt results. Take just a common grocery, and save you about $1.

You know that pine is used in nearly all prescriptions and remedies for coughs. The reason is that pine contains several peculiar elements that have a remarkable effect in soothing and healing the membranes of the throat and chest. Pine is famous for this purpose.

Pine cough syrup are combinations of pine and syrup. The "syrup" part is usually plain sugar syrup. To make the best pine cough remedy that money can buy, put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex in a pint bottle, and fill up with home-made sugar syrup. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you make a full pint—more than you can buy ready-made for three times the money. It is pure, good and very pleasant—children take it eagerly.

You can feel this take hold of a cough or cold in a way that means business. The cough may be dry, hoarse and tight, or may be persistently loose from the formation of phlegm. The cause is the same—inflamed membranes—and this Pinex and Syrup combination will stop it—usually in 24 hours or less. Splendid, too, for bronchial asthma, hoarseness, or any ordinary throat ailment. Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is famous the world over for its prompt effect on coughs.

Beware of substitutes. Ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

FR. MANNING HERE THIRTY YEARS

Leader of Catholic Faith is Paid
High Tribute

SEES ADVANCEMENT OF CITY

Lima Good Place to Live, Declares Monsignor

Thirty years ago yesterday, a Sunday, Monsignor Albert E. Manning, then Rev. Albert M. Manning, said his first mass at St. Rose's church, N. West and Kibbena.

Tuesday every member of the Catholic faith in Lima and a host of friends not of that faith, celebrated the thirtieth year of his guidance, not with pomp and splendor, but with deep reverence and silent prayer. Today he is the leader of that church in this city and has been identified with every forward movement in the city in the last three decades.

Vast moral, religious and educational development of Lima has been seen since the days of the oil boom in 1893 when Monsignor Manning took charge of St. Rose parish, then the only Roman Catholic parish in the city of 10,000 population.

His first Sunday here Monsignor Manning said both high and low masses. He was also in charge of Columbus Grove parish at that time. His congregation here consisted of generally speaking of Lima, Monsignor Manning as he is in an arm chair Tuesday morning at the home, expressed pleasure for his past years and viewed the future with optimism, asking for many more years of cheerful association with his congregation and continued contact with non-members of his church who have extended the hand of fellowship in his years and years here in Lima.

"Growth and development of Lima rests solely on the respectable strain in the early pioneers," Monsignor Manning said in recalling his early days here.

"I can remember the closing days of the oil boom. Lima was an oil town and morally it was like most of towns, but just a little better. With return to normalcy, attention was turned to moral, religious and educational development and today Lima is a city in which I am proud to live."

"Erection of industrial plants and rapid expansion of early industries attracted a class of people years ago, with whom considerable trouble was experienced but the respectable strain in the pioneers again asserted itself, and today the city is as clean morally as any of its size."

In 1900 after seven years of guidance by Monsignor Manning, St. Rose congregation was divided and St. John's formed. In 1918 St. Gerard's was formed. Rapid growth of the city from 10,000 to 50,000 and growth of Roman Catholic congregations from 300 families in 1893 to 1,400 families, necessitated expansion.

Today with two assistants, Monsignor Manning modestly refers to the parochial school system with elementary schools and a high school and to the friendly spirit manifested among his people.

OPTIMISTIC FOR LIMA approximately 300 families and the school attendance numbered 300 in the elementary school. There was no Catholic high school.

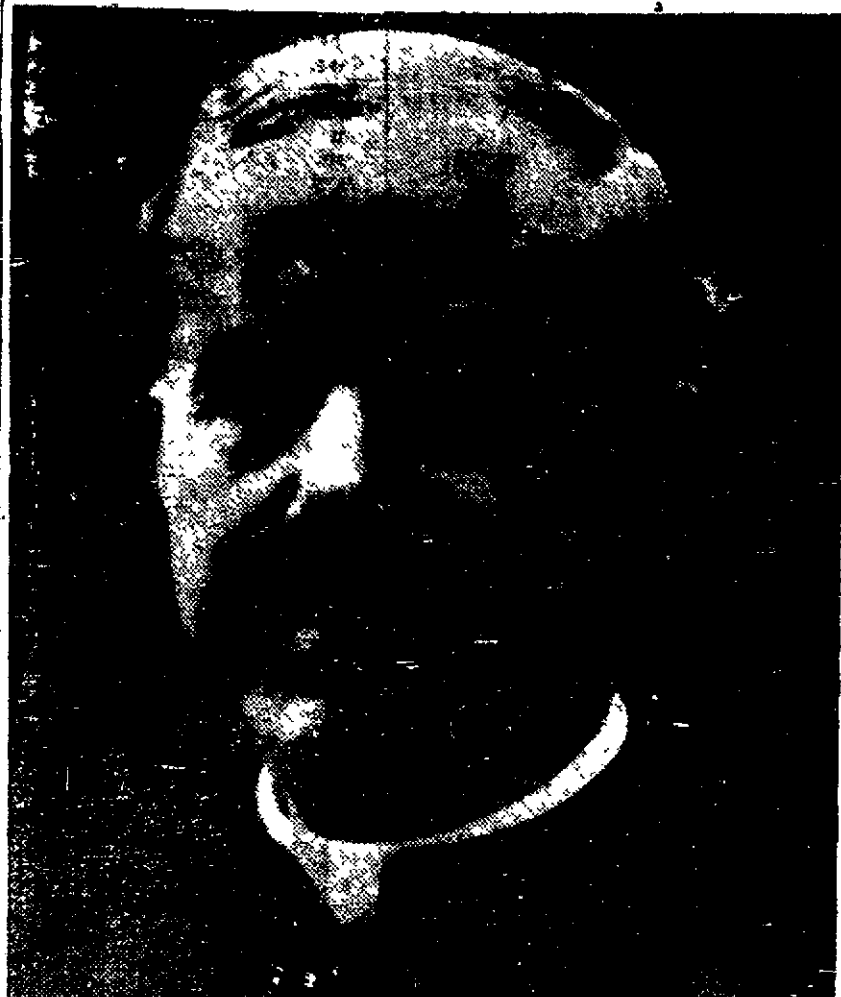

St. Rose church, erected 50 years ago thru energies of the handful of parishioners and the gathering place of all Catholics in Lima, was the altar on which Monsignor Manning first said his mass and preached the gospel to his followers.

REFUSE TO PAY FINE CHIROS GO TO JAIL

PINDLAY — Dr. W. L. Roller and Dr. G. Sauer, whose jail in the place of paying a fine and costs when arraigned last night before Mayor H. R. Redabaugh on a charge of practicing medicine and surgery without a license. They are chiropractors and were arrested some time ago on affidavits signed by State Medical Inspector Frank O. Dorsey, who was the prosecuting witness. A statement by Dr. Roller this morning to his friends, was that he requested them to make no effort to secure their release as it would give the medical board license to prosecute other chiropractors.

LAND CONTRACT CLAUSE VALID

Buyer Loses if Payments Fail
Supreme Court Declares

COLUMBUS — (Associated Press) — The state supreme court Tuesday held valid clauses in land contracts providing that when the purchaser of the property fails to keep up his deferred payments the title to the land reverts to the seller and the purchaser loses all money he has paid on the contract.

The decision was given in the case of Sheryl Simons against William B. Harshorn and came into the highest tribunal on a motion to certify the records of the court of appeals of Lucas-co for review.

Simons had bought a small piece of property in Toledo from Harshorn at a contract price of $1,425, paying $175 cash and the balance to be paid at the rate of $15 per month. After keeping up payments for three years during which time $900 had been paid on the property, Simons was convicted of highway robbery and sentenced to the penitentiary. His wife was unable to keep up the payments on the property, and Harshorn took possession of it.

A beneficiary under the workmen's compensation law is without authority to assign any part of an industrial commission award for attorney fees, the state supreme court held in effect in denying Attorney David B. Carpenter of Cleveland a review in his attempt to collect $2,090 from the industrial commission and Ruth Smith of Cleveland.

Mrs. Smith's husband, Alexander Smith had been killed while in the employ of the Chandler Motor Co. Carpenter contracted with Mrs. Smith to prosecute her claim for compensation for half of any award that might be made. The industrial commission refused the widow's claim for compensation, but the case was taken to the courts where an award of $5,160 was given the widow and $410 allowed Carpenter for attorney fees. Carpenter then sued the industrial commission and Mrs. Smith for $2,090 representing the additional alleged by him to be due on his contract for half the award.

Shareholders in the Mt. Gilead Savings & Loan Co. failed in the supreme court in their effort to hold directors of the institution liable for losses which they sustained as a result of alleged defalcations of F. B. McMillan, secretary of the institution, and because of alleged "mismanagement and negligence" on the part of the directors.

Shareholders lost seven per cent on an aggregate of about $60,000 in the failure of the institution. D. D. Bocher and other shareholders sought to collect their losses from H. R. Talmage and other directors. The supreme court refused to review the case which the lower courts had decided in favor of the directors.

Elmer A. Momense, Toledo, father of Robert C. Momense, six years of age, who was killed by an automobile driven by Albert W. Krapp near the Sherman street school (fallen in the supreme court to recover damages from Krapp). The highest tribunal refused to review the decision of lower courts which had refused damages.

The supreme court decided to hear the suit in mandamus brought by Frank L. Ryan and other successful bidders for $55,000 bonds issued by the board of education of Burlington, Licking-co to compel R. J. Patton, president of the school board to sign the bonds. Patton has refused to sign them.

A MATING IN THE WILDS

BY OTTOWELL BURNS

BEGIN HERE TODAY.
Hubert Stane serves a term in prison for forgery. He visits a northern post of the Hudson Bay Company, where he meets a one-time friend, a wild Alaskan, who promises to visit Stane's cell at midnight.

Stane becomes acquainted with a beautiful Indian girl named Miskodee. At midnight Stane is attacked and he regains consciousness he is in a canoe with Indians.

Aliskey takes a trip with a governor of the company and falls in love with Helen Yardley, the governor's niece. Helen disappears from her uncle's camp and Gerald with an Indian guide goes in search of her.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY.
That evening he camped at the foot of a fall, which he had heard of, but never before seen, and spent the whole of the next day in portaging his belongings to navigable water, and on the following evening well beyond the rocky rapids, where the river ran so swiftly, made his camp, happily conscious that now the river presented no barrier for two hundred miles.

As he sat smoking outside his little tent, an absent, thoughtful look upon his face, his eyes fixed dreamily on the river, his mind reverted once more to the problem of recent happenings, and as he considered it, there came to him the picture of Miskodee as he had seen her running towards him between the willows just before the blow which had knocked him unconscious. She had cried to him to put him in his guard, and the apprehension in her face as he remembered it told him that she knew of the ill that was to befall him. He recalled the directness of her speech in their first conversation and smiled at the naïveté of her estimate of himself.

The smile died, leaving the absent, thoughtful look more pronounced, and in the same moment the vision of Miskodee was obliterated by the vision of Helen Yardley.

Again, as he recalled the steady scrutinizing glance of her gray eyes he felt the blood boiling in his heart, and for a moment his eyes were alight with dreams. Then he laughed in sudden bitterness.

"What a confounded fool I am!" he said. "A discarded convict—"

The utterance was suddenly checked, and an interesting look came on his face. There "as something coming" down the river. He rose quickly to his feet in order to get a better view of the object which had suddenly floated into his line of vision. It was a canoe. It appeared to be empty, and thinking it was a derelict drifting from some camp up river, he threw himself down again, for even if he saw it, it could be of no possible use to him. He wondered whether the current would sweep it clear, and now watched it with interest since he had once heard a river-man declare that anything that surrendered itself completely to a current would clear obstructions. He had not believed the theory at the time, and now before his eyes it was disproved; for the derelict swung straight towards the rocks, then twisted half a round as it was caught by some swirl, and struck a sharp piece of rock broad-side on.

Then happened a totally unexpected thing. As the canoe struck, a girl who had been lying at the bottom, raised herself suddenly, and stared at the water outside, one hand clutching the gunwale. A second later the canoe drifted against another rock and suddenly tilted, throwing the girl into the broken water.

By this time, taken by surprise though he was, Stane was on his feet, and running down the bank. He did not stop to launch his canoe but just as he was flung himself to the water, and started to swim across the river, drift: a little with the current, striving to reach a point where he could intercept the girl as she drifted down. It was no light task he had set himself, for the current was strong, and carried him further than he intended to go, but he was in front of the piece of human flotsam which the river was claiming for its prey, and as it came nearer he stretched a hand and grasped at it. He caught a handful of chestnut hair that floated like long weed in the river's side and the next moment turned the girl over on her back. She was unconscious.

THE NEXT MOMENT HE WAS SCRAMBLING UP THE BANK.

that, he began to exert all his strength, striking across the current for the nearest bank, which was the one furthest from camp.

A hundred yards down-stream a huge tree, by some collapse of one bank, had been flung from the position where it had grown for perhaps a hundred years, and now lay with its crown and three-quarters of its trunk in the river. Its roots, heavily laden with earth, still clung to the bank and fought with the river for its prey.

In a moment, as it seemed, they had reached it, and now holding the girl's hair firmly in one hand, with the other he clutched at one of the branches. He caught it, and the next moment was unexpectedly ducked overhead in the icy water. He came up gasping, and then understood. The tree was what in the voyager's nomenclature is known as a "sweeper." Still held by its roots it bobbed up and down with the current, and the extra strain of his weight and the girl's had sunk it deeper into the water. It still moved up and down, and he had not finished spitting when a new danger asserted itself. The creek of the current under the tree was tremendous.

In a second, as it seemed, the tree leaped like a horse and the water swept him and the girl under the trunk. Scarcely were they under when his free arm shot out and flung itself round a fresh bough which floated level with the water. Immediately the bough bobbed under, but he was prepared for that, and after a brief rest, he set the girl's hair between his teeth once more, and with both hands free began to work from bough to bough. One that he clutched gave an ominous crack. It began to sag in a dangerous way, and at the fork where it joined a larger branch a white slit appeared and began to grow wider. He watched it growing, his eyes quite steady, his mind alert for the emergency that it seemed must arrive, but the branch held for the space of time he needed it, and it was with heartfelt relief that he grasped a larger bough, and the next moment touched bottom with his feet.

At that he shifted his hold on the girl, towing her by a portion of her dress, and two minutes later, lifted her beyond the water-line on the high shelving bank. The next moment he had her in his arms and was scrambling up the bank.

Gasping he stood looking at her until he had recovered his breath, the girl unconscious of his gaze; then when he felt equal to the task, he plunged again into the river and swam to his own camp. A few minutes later he returned in his canoe, carrying with him a field water-bottle filled with medical brandy.

The girl lay as he had left her, and his first action was to pour a few drops of brandy between her parted lips, and that done he waited, chafing her hands. A minute later the long-lashed eyelids fluttered and opened, and the gray eyes looked wildly round without seeing him, then closed again and a long sigh came from her as she lapsed into unconsciousness anew. At that he wasted no more time. Lifting her, he carried her down to the canoe, and paddled across the river, and laid her down where the heat of the fire would reach her, then he administered further brandy and once more waited.

Again the eyelids fluttered and opened, and the girl looked round with wild, uncomprehending gaze, then her eyes grew steady, and a moment later fixed themselves upon Stane. He waited, saw wonder light them, then, in a voice that shook, the girl asked: "How did I—come here?"

"That you know best yourself," answered the young man cheerfully. "I fished you out of the river, that is all I know." The girl made as if to reply, but Stane prevented her. "No, don't try to talk for a little while. Wait! Take a little more of this brandy."

She lifted herself in a sitting posture, and he thoughtfully rolled a small sack of beans to support her back, then she looked at him with a quick, questioning gaze.

"I have seen you before, have I not? You are the man who was at Fort Malsum, aren't you—the man whom Mr. Ainsley used to know?"

"Yes," he answered with a sudden bitterness, "I am the man whom Ainsley used to know. My name is Hubert Stane, and I am a discharged convict, as I daresay he told you."

"You fished me out," she said, her eyes on the rocks across the river. "Was it there the canoe overturned?"

"Yes," he answered, "you struck the rocks."

"Then you swam for me?" persisted the girl.

"Had to," he answered carelessly. "Couldn't let you drown before my eyes—even if I am a convict!"

"Tell me where you got me? I remember nothing about it?"

He looked down the river. "As near as I can tell you, it was by that clump of fir there; tho I was not able to land for quite a long distance beyond. You were unconscious, and I carried you along the opposite bank, then swam across for my canoe and ferried you over. There you have the whole story." He broke off sharply, then before she could offer comment he spoke again.

"I think it would be as well if you could have a change of clothes. It is not cold, but to let those you have on dry on you might bring on all sorts of ills. There are some things of mine in the tent I will put them on, and you can slip them on whilst I take a stroll. You can then dry your own outfit."

I wonder if back in your time, Little Marquise, there were women who went out of their way to plant suspicion in your mind or a hurt in your heart and I wonder if they looked like Mrs. Smithson. She is tall and thin, as if the milk of human kindness had absolutely dried up in her veins. Her mouth is almost a cruel slit and her chin comes out and is always a little red and pointed. Her eyes are narrow and about them are little crow's feet, not the crow's feet that you see around the eyes of a jolly, laughing woman, but the long, narrow ones that reach back to the temple and are accompanied habitually by two perpendicular lines over the nose.

It always seems to me when I see Mrs. Smithson that it hurts her to smile, and yet only to you would I draw such an unflattering picture, because in her way she has always been nice to me. Since I have been ill she has sent me over some delicate custard and one day she made a freezer of egg-nog ice cream simply so that I could have some of it.

Jack, who dislikes her very much, insists that this isn't kindness, but a species of patronage, a kind of sop to her own vanity. I wonder which of us is right.

When she came forward to shake my hand, she had a kind of peculiar look upon her face that I had never seen there before. An expression which partook of triumph and sorrow, pity and virtuous condemnation. (Now you know, Little Marquise, if I would make any such fanciful description as that to anyone but you, he would say I had suddenly gone crazy.) But I still contend that is just the way she looked and that look was born out of thoughts she would not voice, but which she implied.

"That picture," "Trumping His Heart," I told you about last week.

"You fished me out," she said, her eyes on the rocks across the river. "Was it there the canoe overturned?"

"Yes," he answered, "you struck the rocks."

"Then you swam for me?" persisted the girl.

"Had to," he answered carelessly. "Couldn't let you drown before my eyes—even if I am a convict!"

"Tell me where you got me? I remember nothing about it?"

He looked down the river. "As near as I can tell you, it was by that clump of fir there; tho I was not able to land for quite a long distance beyond. You were unconscious, and I carried you along the opposite bank, then swam across for my canoe and ferried you over. There you have the whole story." He broke off sharply, then before she could offer comment he spoke again.

"I think it would be as well if you could have a change of clothes. It is not cold, but to let those you have on dry on you might bring on all sorts of ills. There are some things of mine in the tent I will put them on, and you can slip them on whilst I take a stroll. You can then dry your own outfit."

TO OFFICE BOYS AND BANK PRESIDENTS
The boy at the outer gate needs Eversharp and Wahl Pen. He can afford Eversharp at $1. He can buy the all-metal Wahl Pen as low as $4. Or in rubber at $2.50 up.

The bank president in his private office also needs America's favorite writing tools. He will probably buy a costlier set, matched in sterling or in solid gold.

The point is, Eversharp and Wahl Pen service which is needed by all is available to all.

Be sure you get Eversharp. Its features can't be copied. Eversharp alone has the exclusive rifled tip that prevents lead wobbling. It also has the automatic index that shows how much lead is in the barrel. And under the cap is the eraser and magazine of new leads. Carry two Eversharp—one with black lead, one with colored lead.

Get the all-metal Wahl Pen, too! It cannot break. It will wear a lifetime. And it holds more ink.

Eversharp and Wahl Pen are priced up to $10 each. Solid gold at higher prices. Buy both. Look for the name on each. Ask to see the Wahl rubber pens, too! $2.50 up.

Made in the U. S. A. by THE WAHL CO., Chicago

IMPORTANT: A pencil is no better than a pen. Don't use poor lead in your Eversharp. Eversharp leads are recognized as the finest made—a fact proved by over $20,000,000 sold every year. They are made to fit the pencil. Seven grades, very soft to very hard. Ask for the new small-diameter colored leads, too! In the red top box.

Reasonable care and attention on your part will guard against most winter driving troubles. Just as extra care and attention on the part of this Company makes Red Crown Gasoline the most satisfactory fuel for your motor in winter as well as in summer.

Red Crown Specially Refined for Winter Driving

Each year, during the colder months, the boiling points of Red Crown Gasoline are lowered at the refinery. This makes Red Crown more volatile, makes it vaporize readily as usual and start cold motors easily.

But Red Crown still has the famous complete chain of boiling points which provides the heat power and range required to operate a motor efficiently and economically under all the varying conditions of weather, engine speed and load.

The complete chain of boiling points in Red Crown and their effect in the automobile engine are like the action of paper, kindling and coal in the familiar grate fire.

MR. COMMISSIONERS, GIVE US THE LINE-UP!

INDICATIONS are that there will be a great deal of shifting about in the official family of Lima after the first of the year. At least that is the word that has gone out and it is known that two commissioners were elected at the last election on the platform of "firing" several old officials.

There has been much talk since the election and some of it is doing the city no good since an impression is being gained on the outside that things locally will be torn to pieces, that a revolution will follow the reorganization of the commission and that the government will be rebuilt from the ground up.

It is only little more than a month until the commission will reorganize. The commissioners-elect undoubtedly know what they are going to do after they take their seats for they were elected to do certain things and can't well escape performing the tasks. The men who are responsible for the change in the commission undoubtedly know what will be done for they elected commissioners to do what they want done and may reasonably expect that the candidates who won will do them.

Why not give the city and world the entire slate as it will be formed after the first of the year and get the speculation over and let things settle down before Christmas so that when the new commissioners take their office everything will be settled and there need be no surprises?

The community knows that a fight will be made to oust City Manager Bingham. It knows that Chief of Police Lanker was attacked in the campaign, but it is not so certain that he will be replaced. Those who read and reason see the sewage disposal plant, as one of the prime issues of the last campaign. It is seen in such a light now, altho it was cunningly kept beneath the surface then. It knows that the big reservoir "scandal" was simply dust to becloud the political skies and that other extraneous "issues" were not really issues at all.

Lima would profit as a whole if the new commissioners and those who will hold over would state their positions clearly as to the "firing" they will do after the first of the year. The public is not strong for uncertainty. Why not give us the line-up now and have it over with and stop the unfavorable talk about our city over the state?

TAX SPENDERS

HOW much of your hard-earned money is being spent for government? The tax question is coming to the front again, so here's a summary of the tax spenders supported by the taxpayers.

There are 2,700,000 public servants on the payroll of national, state and municipal governments in America, and their pay $500 million dollars a year, according to a check-up by the National Industrial Conference Board.

This huge figure doesn't include the 670,000 pensioners and other inactive persons receiving support—the whole lot collecting 320 million dollars a year.

So taxpayers are supporting 3,370,000 tax spenders—or, as a wag calls them, "tax eaters." And the cost of the whole lot is not far from four billion dollars a year, FOR SALARIES ALONE.

The public payroll costs every man, woman and child in the country an average of $84 a year. The cost is $91 a year for every American over 10 years of age.

Furthermore, one person out of every 12 over the age of 16 in America is a public employee. In other words, every 11 taxpayers are supporting one tax spender.

The cost of state, county and municipal governments has increased tremendously since before the war. William P. Helms Jr., an able authority, estimates that state governments alone cost 1443 million dollars in 1922. This figure includes all items of expense—salaries, interest on debt, etc.

The really important question, of course, is what taxpayers are getting for their money, rather than how many are getting it.

That was the big cry in Lima before the election and since—how much money the spenders would have, not what the public was going to get. We know that certain things are necessary and take for granted that we have to pay for them in this connection.

We would not make the statement that salaries of officials as a whole have been too high in Lima. They may have been too high in spots. Whether or not that is true—and it has caused much debate—next year will be the time to start paring the high ones. We have only about half enough money to run the city and the spenders must take their chances with the rest of us if they want to cling to the official payroll.

At the post, gay greetings from Larry Nabholz. Who is putting the clubs back in the lockers against his own getaway.

To the office, and sat. And there found little of import, until the foreman brot in Foreman Jr., the manliest little chap I ever did see. And just learning to teeter totter in a noble walk. Out to meet Walt Parmenter, the brave printer, and Dr. Shelby S. Mumaugh and Dr. A. S. Rudy. There goes Ed Weadock. There must be a clinic somewhere near.

Lunched, with Dr. Charles Mayo, the eminent extender of longevity to Modern America. At my table Dr. Bannister, Dr. Tussing, and Dr. Clark, the alienist. After the joint course, discourse became general, and lively tilt as to the greatness of Ingverill or Wm J. Bryan.

After lunch with Dr. Mayo, who did tell me his good wife always insisted on his making notes before he spoke. Which he had duly done. Howbeit, discovered as usual he had lost all the things he had written down to say. A pleasing personality who has taken Life seriously for others, and laughed at it lightly and gaily for himself. So he seemeth in idle discourse. Yet has any man given more to the world?

Back to the shoppe, bowing to George Metheny, the telephone king, and Moss Mitchell, the banker. Saw, too, three pretty nurses who had attended the luncheon as gallery auditors of the famous physician.

Dined at The Mikado, but few of supertalk roundabout whom I did know. Tom Schoonover's handsome brother and Bert Coleman at one table, while Harry Lindesmith was doing fairly well with a piece of beef. They do tell me The Queen is now attracting many of the first families and the fashionable.

So out and gassing a few blocks. Thence home, to give way to Mah Jong players. Read awhile in Janet March. Which grows more naughtily with each chapter. And she isn't married yet. On a beaker of milk and cream, late to bed.

LET THEM PLAY

Don't know what is the matter with the boys nowadays. For several years not a cabbage stump has found sanctuary in our vestibule, not a window pane in the house has been smashed by a foul tip or a misplaced snowball, no neighbors urn or wheelbarrow has even been hung on our eave. The boys around here seem to devote their time to changing their linen, dressing for dinner and the movies.

Why do boys go wrong? Here is our version of the psychology of it. Every boy likes to show off. That is human nature. If he hasn't the opportunity to do it in a legitimate, respectable, boyish way, like annoying the neighbors, stealing fruit, baseball, gymnastics, tumbling, races, boxing, and athletic pursuits in general, then he avails himself of other means. He can smoke a cigarette and win the admiration and applause of his companions who have not yet grown quite so bold. He can stride up to a car while the weak kneed sissies hesitate outside. It is a shame to arrest boys for playing ball on the streets, for stealing a little ripe fruit, for snowballing a tempting target, or for any of the thousand and one respectable things every real boy does to let off steam and gratify that showoff ambition. Especially is it wrong in a community to do this when no adequate place is provided for boys to play. What could you do—make your boys little old men of the neuter gender? Have you forgotten the scores of time you would have been jailed had your community taken such a view of play boys?

Let youth have a chance. Let age stand by to give counsel and caution, but let youth run things. That is the way to govern a city which pretends to be progressive. Youth is progressive. Age is conservative, standpat.

Ample ground for play is what we need. And gymnasia. Not croquet courts and teeter tawer boards, but playgrounds with room and equipment for the big boys, the boys who are getting ready to take turn to good or bad. Playgrounds every few blocks at least as many as schools. The body must have a square deal. It won't do to make our boys stop heavy.

Vanished After Using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

W. Philadelphia, Pa.—"When I cleaned house last April I must have overfired, for I was so hot and feverish, I had pains and aches all the time and was so discouraged. I could hardly do my own housework, and I could not carry a basket of groceries from the store nor walk even four or five squares without getting terrible pains in my back and abdomen and lower limbs. I went to visit a friend in Mt. Holly, N. J., and she said, 'My dear, why don't you take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?' My husband said that if it did her so much good for the same trouble, I should try it. So I have taken it and it is doing me good. Whenever I feel heavy or bad, it puts me right on my feet again. I am able to do my work with pleasure and am getting strong and stout. I still take the Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills, and am using Lydia E. ## THIS LITTLE WORLD

—WASHINGTON—

(BY HARRY B. HUNT)
WASHINGTON—(Special)—Gratitude is not dead. Broad cast upon the waters does return. For instance:

A dignified southern gentleman, now in Washington, driving up the alley to his garage the other evening found a fellow autoist in trouble. That the man in distress was colored made no difference to our southern Samaritan. It was enough that his engine wouldn't start. So he proffered his services.

Together they traced thru the trouble, fixed it and got the car going.

The colored driver, profusely grateful, but with a slightly apologetic, even hesitant manner inquired: "Boss, does yo' ever take a 'M' drink?"

"Well, I have been known to." "Well, boss, I sure am obliged to yo'. I was just startin' out to make a few deliveries, and I sure would be proud if yo' 'cept a little bottle o' corn likker, wit my compliments. An' any time yo' happens to want mo'—"

Gratitude! Now the Samaritan's friends keep careful watch up alleys in the hope of themselves spying a stalled auto with a grateful driver.

Practicing what one preaches is nowhere more difficult than in public life. But in Brig. Gen. Herbert M. Lord, director of Uncle Sam's budget, Washington presents one man who does it.

Lord not only keeps the budget for the government, he keeps a personal one for his own domestic establishment. An outline of a proper domestic budget system, Lord says, might run like this:

First deduct from the annual salary 10 per cent for savings, plus an amount sufficient to cover income tax payments. (You see, Lord can't forget that Uncle Sam simply must have his.)

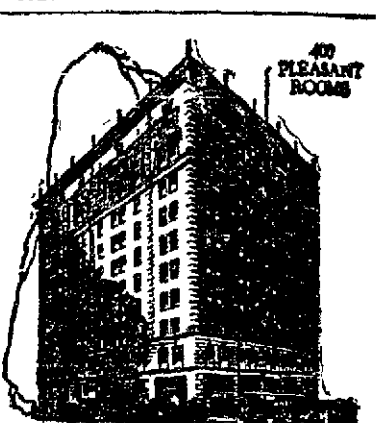

Divide the balance into five equal parts for food, shelter, clothing, operating expenses and development.

Apportion these over the year—and keep within them every week. "Operating expenses" covers such items as fuel and lighting, servants, water, repairs and furnishings. "Development" includes church contributions, benevolences, club dues, medical bills, entertainment, etc.

To make the capital safe for Congress, Washington wants more women on its police force. They can best

(BY GERTRUDE GILLHAM)

It is a fact that Richard Barthelmess would some day burst upon the film firmament as the bright particular star of romance roles has, we believe, been confirmed. This reflection is prompted by the immense satisfaction with which he portrays the role of the valiant Karstenbrock in "The Fighting Blade" which opened a six day run at the Sigma Monday.

Recollections of this young star's previous masterpiece, "Tol'able David," his splendid portrayal in the classic, "Fury," and his more recent triumph in "The Bright Shawl," flashed thru our memory as we viewed the Sigma in pleasurable anticipation to witness "The Fighting Blade." And the expecting much from the star in his portrayal of the celebrated Flemish duelist, who proved an invaluable ally to Cromwell in overthrowing Charles I and establishing popular government in England in 1649, for Barthelmess did not get this Roundhead youth, he lived it.

Of course credit must be spoken for those who supported him, for those who invested the production with the Cornwellian atmosphere which framed the illusion. The Thomasine of Dorothy Mackaill is a splendid foil in the romance sequences. The Cromwell of Frederick Burton is an intelligent study. Three excellent actors, Lee Baker, Morgan Wallace and Bradley Barker, in the roles furnishing the dramatic opposition—the Earl of Stavesham, Lord Erisev and "Roaring Watt"—were admirable in their villainous parts.

"The Fighting Blade" depicts the famous exploits of Karl Van Karstenbrock, famous duelist of the day, who comes to England to avenge the death of his sister, and remained to join the Roundheads under Cromwell in the historic rebellion that paved the way for popular government in England. Daring exploits, fair breath escapes, honor, love, thrills and suspense mark the course of "The Fighting Blade," most amusing of all pictures in which Barthelmess has starred.

"The Eternal Three"

MARSHALL NEILAN pays his respects to the members of a noble profession—physicians and surgeons—in his new photoplay, written and directed by himself, "The Eternal Three," which opens a four engagement Tuesday at the Lyric theatre.

It tells the engrossing story of a great surgeon whose foster son falls in love with the surgeon's young niece and fascinates her. The son is injured and only an operation by the surgeon can save him. A slip of the knife which no one would detect, and the boy would be forever out of the way. But the doctor believes his wife loves the boy. What he really does is the engrossing problem which the picture propounds.

Goldwyn gave the author this stirring story. Hobart Bosworth, Claire Windsor, Raymond Griffith, and Bessie Love have the leading roles. Others in the cast are Tom Gallery, George Cooper, Alec Francis, William Morris, Helen Lynch, Lillian Leighton and Peaches Jackson.

A comedy will complete the program.

CITY HAS WATER ENOUGH TO LAST UNTIL JAN. 27
Lima has enough water in its three reservoirs to last until Jan. 27, even though there is not another drop of rain, according to figures submitted to City Manager Bingham Tuesday morning by George Kirk, chief engineer of the water department.

His figures, which included the period up to 9 a. m. Tuesday show a total in the three reservoirs of $253,625,000 gallons of water. The city is using, Bingham said, 3,700,000 gallons per day from the reservoir and is pumping in another 1,000,000 gallons for daily consumption. The total daily consumption according to Bingham is 4,700,000 gallons.

Officials are confident that there will be no danger of a water shortage during the winter because they are confident that between the rain and the January thaw the reservoirs will have sufficient water to keep the supply sufficient to meet all demands.

MRS. GOEKE IS HOSTESS AT ELKS HOME

SHE'S NOW A PEERESS

MRS. J. H. GOEKE, Shawnee, presided at a one o'clock luncheon of most exquisite appointments at the Elks home on Tuesday. Mrs. Goeke's guests numbered twenty.

The luncheon table, laid in the private dining room, had as its centerpiece a platted basket of raspberry shaded chrysanthemums, combined with the asparagus ferns. Candles of the same delicate shade were used with the ribbons extended from candle to candle. Nut baskets and place cards also carried out the attractive color scheme.

Following the luncheon, four tables were arranged in the lounge for the afternoon's bridge games.

Mrs. Gus Brown of Wapakoneta was an only out-of-town guest.

Miss Louise Ackerman held high score among the members of the Monday Evening Bridge club and Miss Abigail Sullivan held high among the guests present when Miss Geraldine Duffield entertained the club Monday evening. Following the games, a two-course luncheon was served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Louise Ackerman and Mrs. Howard Horn of Cleveland.

The club will meet in two weeks with Miss Mary Margaret Bourk, N. Pierce-st.

Members of the Friendly club will gather at the home of G. A. Albrecht, 229 N. Jameson-av., for their regular semi-monthly meeting Thursday evening.

Lima friends of Miss Ruth Basden, formerly of this city, will be interested in knowing that she will go to New York the first of December to start rehearsals with Arthur Pryor and his band, and will then go to Miami, Fla., for an engagement of 16 weeks, as soloist with the Arthur Pryor band.

Miss Basden who has a delightful soprano voice, has been teaching voice in Columbus for some time. She also has been singing a great deal this fall in several Ohio cities doing concert work.

Miss Basden is a niece of Mrs. John Davison and Mrs. John J. Wyre of this city.

SUSIE SMART'S ADVICE

Dear Miss Smart: PLEASE help me out if you possibly can. I love a girl four years my junior and she tells me that she loves me. But I am very jealous of her and she is jealous of me. Whenever she has a good time with a fellow I get jealous and vice versa. Please tell me how to overcome this jealousy. I really love this young girl and want her, but our jealousy makes us unhappy.

What is the average salary of a stenographer?

Should a boy shake hands with a girl when being introduced?

What are the meanings of the names Cora, Catherine, Elizabeth, Edna, Donovan, Kenneth, Harold and Gale?

How is my writing?

Is Constance Talmadge married? Please publish as soon as possible. Thanking you in advance. LMA NUT.

I think you are both very unreasonable. Why not ask her to become engaged to you? Then, she would not accept the attentions of other men. There is no need for you to be unhappy, when you might be enjoying a worth-while friendship.

I think the average wage for a stenographer is around $15.00 per week.

The girl is the one who should extend her hand first.

Cora means maiden; Catherine means pure; Elizabeth means worshiper of God; Edna means picture; Donovan means proud chief; Kenneth means a leader; Harlan means a champion and Gale means bright-spirited.

"Connie" has been married but has secured a divorce.

Good.

Dear Miss Smart: Can or will you please publish a recipe for old fashioned cookies of some kind? Some kind that you use some milk and soda for? Something that will stay soft after baking?

Can you also tell me how to clean a black fur collar or coat?

MRS. M. G.

Below is a recipe for soft molasses cookies: 1 cup molasses, 1 3/4 teaspoons soda; 1 cup sour milk; 1-2 cup shortening, melted; 2 teaspoons ginger, 1 teaspoon salt and flour. Add soda to molasses and beat thoroughly; add milk, shortening, ginger, salt and flour. Enough flour must be used to make mixture of right consistency to drop easily from spoon. Let stand several hours in cold place to thoroughly chill. Toss one-half mixture at a time on slightly floured board and roll lightly to one-fourth inch thickness. Shape with a round cutter, first dipped in flour. Bake on a buttered sheet.

I would not advise trying to clean the fur yourself. Send the coat or collar to a dry cleaner. I'm sure he can clean it most satisfactorily for you.

Test This Out For Yourself—

MANY people who drink coffee regularly are troubled with insomnia; or they feel nervous, "head-achy," or suffer from indigestion.

It may be hard for such men and women to believe that coffee is responsible for the way they feel. Because they have always drunk coffee, it hardly seems possible that this old habit could cause trouble.

But there is one sure way to find out whether coffee is harming you. Just stop its use for a week or so, and drink Postum.

Postum is a pure cereal beverage—absolutely free from caffeine, the drug in coffee, which disturbs the health and comfort of many.

After a week or two on Postum, you will sleep better and feel better; then your own good judgment should decide whether you go back to coffee or continue on the Road to Wellville with Postum.

Wilce Remapping Plays, Also Shifting Players Against Zuppke Eleven

CHICAGO — Coach Bob Zuppke, of the University of Illinois football squad, which can have no more than a dual claim for first honors in the Western Conference by taking the season's last game next Saturday, is driving his charges harder than ever. He saw Chicago give Ohio State its third conference setback here Saturday and returned to Urbana to break a precedent by scrimmaging his team on Monday, lauding the Buckeye eleven despite the fact it has been no nearer than seventeen points of victory in three of its four Big Ten contests.

"Ohio is a slippery team," warned Zuppke. "Don't underestimate the Buckeyes for a minute."

At Columbus, Coach Wilce is remapping his entire list of plays because Zuppke saw all but a few forward passes in the Chicago game. Wilce also is shifting his players.

Reports from Ann Arbor where the feature game of the conference, the Michigan Minnesota contest, will be offered Saturday, indicate the undefeated Wolverines are in a bad way from injuries. But there's going to be a football game here next Saturday, mark my word! says Coach Yost. His charges ran thru a light workout yesterday, Rockwell replacing the star center, calling a number of forward pass combinations.

Michigan must take that game to be able to claim a tie with Illinois if the Illinois triumph over Ohio State, as expected.

Minnesota is unbeaten, but a tied game with Wisconsin means the Gophers' record. Yet Michigan and Illinois losses would give the Minnesotans a full claim to the title.

At Minneapolis yesterday three regulars were not even in uniform because of hard bumps from Saturday's Iowa game. Only one hard scrimmage 14 looked for this week, the Gophers leaving for Ann Arbor Thursday night.

Chicago and Chicago met at Slugg Field Saturday. Coach Ryan has worked out a diversified attack that was displayed by the Badgers for the first time against Michigan and Chicago demonstrated its versatility against Ohio.

Iowa is counted on to win from Northwestern at Evanston and Purdue and Indiana, each with one win, will fight it out for a place among the conference teams of a poorer standing.

WITTENBERG GOSSIP — (Special to Lima News) — Paul L. Burdette, local boy now attending Wittenberg college, Springfield, O., is a member of the Lutheran freshman football squad and is being mentioned with favor by the Wittenberg coaching staff. Training of the yearlings has been given by John Heberling, remembered for being on Wittenberg under E. R. Godfrey, head of the athletic department, will have the present freshmen in hand next fall, and has this to say: "Every year varsity depends upon the freshmen team for scrimmage. Varsity practices in the first year men, in other words, and the first team ability is increased with the assistance the freshmen can give. This year in particular the freshmen have given us excellent scrimmage at times, they scored heavily against the regulars."

Freshmen at Wittenberg have their own locker rooms and shower baths and gas fires in the north end of the great new stadium. These safe quarters are used by writing teams on Saturdays when the freshmen gridironers join their classmates in a roving section for freshmen. Even Monday, when scouts return from other games, freshmen are given signals used by the college team coming the following Saturday. This affords practice for Varsity and teaches much football to the youngsters.

Counting this year at Wittenberg Burdette has had 5 years' experience and should make a good showing next fall.

-Knute Rockne- The Gridiron Magician

Success of Pass at Notre Dame Makes Eleven Believe in the Play Touch-Ball Helps Development of Pass

"WHY does Notre Dame have so much more success with the forward pass than most eleven's?" When that question was put to Coach Rockne, he merely smiled and modestly replied: "Do you think we have more success with the pass?" When assured that such was the belief, he replied:

"Whatever success Notre Dame eleven have with the forward pass is largely due to the fact that I teach my players to believe in the play."

"I have them work on the theory that there is just as much chance for a forward pass to succeed in any other play if every player does his proper part in the execution of same. When a forward pass fails it is a frank admission that some player or players have slipped up in their task."

"With a great many teams the signal for a forward pass means that the ball must be hurled through the air regardless of consequences. Notre Dame players are not taught to obey that theory. They are instructed to make the play when there is a reasonable chance for its success."

"If the man with the ball sees that everyone is covered, it is often good judgment for him to retain possession of the ball and continue the play as a run."

"It is a mistake, I think, to spend much time in perfecting the pass from various formations and then regard the use of it much as we do dynamite, a handle-with-care method. The forward pass is more than a threat, merely to be used as a last resort when beaten. Every game presents innumerable spots where the forward pass is a good bet and that is the spot to use it."

Regardless of Rockne's modesty in questioning the statement that Notre Dame had a shade on most other eleven's in the development of the pass, such is actually the case. And, as a matter of fact, this success dates right back to Rockne himself.

One of the first players to develop the pass, no coach is more familiar than Rockne with its possibilities. He is a past master still at receiving and hurling the pass, and when he wants to try something that is a bit different he can step on the gridiron and put his thoughts into execution.

The game of touch-ball is another stunt that helps the perfection of play in the use of the forward pass, says Rockne. Touch-ball is a Notre Dame specialty. It is played on all parts of the campus and at all hours. The game combines football with basketball and no tackling or scrimmage is necessary. Mere touching of the ball while it is in the air or a player's hands constitutes a down.

This game is the means of many students learning the first rudiments of handling and throwing the ball. Fleetsomeness of foot and alertness of eye is taught in this game, both being along the development of Notre Dame varsity football players.

WALTER SEELEY MAKING GOOD

In the communication referring to Walter Seeley, and his remarkable showing in his freshman year with Purdue University football squad, the correspondent erroneously stated that he was formerly a South Hi grad. It should have been Central Hi. The fact that he has made a high record at this institution, there should be much credit given to former Coach Detrick and Coach Thibert in bringing this young player into prominence. It is true that he will undoubtedly make the team in his sophomore year.

WITH THE CAGERS

Fifteen St. Rose High basketball candidates worked two hours at heavy scrimmage Monday afternoon at St. Rose gym, the first taste of the week's training program in preparation for Friday's game against Dunlark High.

Boyle, McNamara, forwards, O'Connor, center, Capt. Wells and Lane, guards, constituting the Varsity quintette, battled the entire practice session against all other material out for the Red and White court squad.

Surprising strength in the offensive combination of McNamara, Boyle and O'Connor, was brought to the fore. Signal formations were snapped with machine like accuracy and rapidly.

Practice sessions for the remainder of the week will be secret, according to an issue made by Coach Young, Monday.

St. John High school basketball team will play Lafayette next Friday evening. Lafayette this season has one of the best basketball teams in this section of the country, as four of their last year regular team is in school again. Last season Lafayette lost but four games out of eighteen played, two being to Lima teams, one to Ada and one to Bluff.

KENTON — (Special) — The local high school is looking forward to a successful basketball season. A very strong team is being lined up. The first game will be Dec. 7. Central of Lima will be one of the teams played.

Will Pick Men For Olympic Team

BY HENRY L. FARRELL
NEW YORK — "America may lose the championship at the next Olympic games. We don't want to, but if we must the main thing is to lose like gentlemen." Colonel Robert M. Thompson, president of the American Olympic committee, said last night at the annual dinner of the American Fencers' League.

In selecting the team that will carry the shield to Paris, Colonel Thompson said the committee was going to pick "men not only of good arms and legs, but of good hearts and hands also—men whom we can be proud of as American citizens."

Colonel Thompson returned recently after spending several months in France obtaining quarters for the team.

The American committee has gone thoroughly into plans for care of the team in Paris. A staff of American ches will be taken along. To avoid crowding and inconvenience experienced on the trip to Belgium in 1920, the committee decided to take only athletes and persons directly connected with the management of the team to Paris on the steamer.

STOCKS CONTINUE UPWARD MOVE

Profit-taking Halts Rise in Pivotal Shares, However

OTHER SECTIONS STRONG

Gains Scored in Minor Steels and Rails

NEW YORK—(Associated Press)—Stock prices continued their move to higher ground at the opening of today's market in further reflection of the turn for the better in the foreign political news. Baldwin again led the advance, opening a point higher at 129 1/4, a new high level on the movement. Utah Copper moved up 1 1/4 on reports of improved trade positions.

The demand for stocks embraced the entire list with the equipments giving the best demonstration of group strength. Rails continued to lag somewhat behind the industrial group. Big Four advanced 2 1/4 points. Gains of 1 to 2 points were registered by more than a score of stocks including Maxwell Motors A., Woolworth, Fisher Body, Schultze, Lima Locomotive, Pullman, Davison Chemical, Cuba Cane Sugar preferred, American Car and Foundry Company. Foreign changes opened irregular but mainly higher.

Profit-taking sales halted the upward movement in the pivotal shares around the end of the first hour. Baldwin dropping 1 1/2 points from its early high and some of the others yielding a point or so. American Woolen was particularly heavy, falling nearly two points below yesterday's final quotations. Expanded buying developed, however, in other sections of the list, notably in the minor steels, coppers and sugars. Dividend paying rails also showed some good gains. Otis Steel preferred, Superior Steel, American Beet Sugar, Ann Arbor preferred and Market Street Railway preferred were among the issues to advance two points or more before noon. Call money opened at 4 3/4 per cent.

MRS. MORTIMER CAN'T TESTIFY

Refused Chance to go Before Veterans' Committee

WASHINGTON—(Associated Press)—Mrs. Katherine Mortimer, of Philadelphia, wife of Elias H. Mortimer, star witness against former Director Charles R. Forbes, tied unsuccessfully to testify today before the senate veterans committee in an effort, she said, to vindicate publicly her "character and good name."

Responding to the formal request of her counsel, Daniel T. Wright, Chairman Reed said the record had been heard at her own request in private and that if she desired the committee would refuse her testimony publicly. He added that the committee also would propound to Mrs. Mortimer in public such questions as her counsel might prepare, and as the committee might regard as relevant and necessary.

Nothing derogatory

"There has been too much irrelevant testimony in this matter already," Chairman Reed said. "We don't recall anything in the record reflecting on the character of Mrs. Mortimer. When she was referred to in my report for the purpose of giving date and times and the names of persons present when veterans bureau matters were under discussion."

Mrs. Mortimer, who was accompanied by a woman friend, then left the committee room with her counsel.

In presenting the plea of his client, Wright said Mrs. Mortimer had come asking for an opportunity to refute the insinuations made before the committee and declared that a spirit of fair play "would demand that she be heard."

"A woman's character is a delicate thing," said Wright. "It is as fragile as frost on a window—easily of air expelled and it is gone forever. And yet it is her most priceless possession."

ALIMONY PAID AS JURY MEETS

Several Indictments, However, Are Expected Here

A sudden increase in the amount of alimony payments made by former husbands of Allegheny divorcees has been noted in common pleas court since the grand jury convened.

About the time grand jury meets, John T. Cotner, clerk of courts, observed "the delinquents get a little nervous and come in and pay some. After the jury adjourns payments lag again."

Session of the grand jury which opened Monday is scheduled to take a number of non-support charges referred by wives weary of waiting for their former mates to disgorge the money due them.

Not less than six indictments are expected, it was learned.

Recent action of Common Pleas Judge Becker in sending delinquents to prison, when they failed to pay, has had a salutary effect on the rank and file of divorced men who are supposed to maintain their former families.

Grand jury session likely will end over until Wednesday, Prosecutor Lippincott declared.

Wilce Remapping Plays, Also Shifting Players Against Zuppke Eleven

CHICAGO — Coach Bob Zuppke, of the University of Illinois football squad, which can have no more than a dual claim for first honors in the Western Conference by taking the season's last game next Saturday, is driving his charges harder than ever. He saw Chicago give Ohio State its third conference setback here Saturday and returned to Urbana to break a precedent by scrimmaging his team on Monday, lauding the Buckeye eleven despite the fact it has been no nearer than seventeen points of victory in three of its four Big Ten contests.

"Ohio is a slippery team," warned Zuppke. "Don't underestimate the Buckeyes for a minute."

At Columbus, Coach Wilce is remapping his entire list of plays because Zuppke saw all but a few forward passes in the Chicago game. Wilce also is shifting his players.

Reports from Ann Arbor, where the feature game of the conference, the Michigan-Notre Dame contest, will be offered Saturday, indicate the undefeated Wolverines are in a bad way from injuries. "But there's going to be a football game here next Saturday, mark my word," says Coach Yost. His charges ran thru a light workout yesterday. Rockwell replacing the star Uteritz, calling a number of forward pass combinations.

Michigan must take that game to be able to claim a tie with Illinois if the Illinois triumph over Ohio State, as expected.

Minnesota is unbeaten, but a tied game with Wisconsin marks the Gophers' record. Yet, Michigan and Illinois losses would give the Minnesota a full claim to the title.

At Minneapolis yesterday three regulars were not even in uniform because of hard bumps from Saturday's Iowa game. Only one hard scrimmage is booked for this week, the Gophers leaving for Ann Arbor Thursday night.

Wisconsin and Chicago meet at Stagg Field Saturday. Coach Ryan has worked out a diversified attack that was displayed by the Badgers for the first time against Michigan, and Chicago demonstrated its versatility against Ohio.

Iowa is counted on to win from Northwestern at Evanston, and Purdue and Indiana, each with one win, will fight it out for a place among the conference teams of poorer standing.

WITTENBERG GOSSIP — SPRINGFIELD, Ohio — (Special to Lima News).—Paul L. Burdette, local boy now attending Wittenberg college, Springfield, O., is a member of the Lutheran freshman football squad, and is being mentioned with favor by the Wittenberg coaching staff. Training of the varsity team given by John Heberling, homelander for home on Wittenberg undefeated teams.

Coach E. R. Godfrey, head of the athletics department, will have the present freshmen in hand next fall, and has this to say: "Every year varsity depends upon the freshmen team for scrimmage. Varsity practices in the first-year men, in other words, and the first team ability is increased with the resistance the freshmen can give. This year in particular the freshmen have given us excellent scrimmage; at times, they scored heavily against the regulars."

Freshmen at Wittenberg have their own locker rooms and shower baths and gas fires in the north end of the great new stadium. These safe quarters are used by visiting teams on Saturdays when the freshmen griders join their classmates in a rooting section for freshmen.

Every Monday when scouts return from other games, freshmen are given spirals used by the college team coming the following Saturday. This affords practice for Varsity and teaches much football to the youngsters.

Counting this year at Wittenberg, Burdette has had a year's experience and should make a good showing next fall.

-Knute Rockne- The Gridiron Magician

Success of Pass at Notre Dame Makes Eleven Believe in the Play Touch-Ball Helps Development of Pass

"WHY does Notre Dame have so much more success with the forward pass than most eleven?" When that question was put to Coach Rockne, he merely smiled and modestly replied:

"Do you think we have more success with the pass?" When assured that such was the belief, he replied:

"Whatever success Notre Dame eleven have with the forward pass is largely due to the fact that I teach my players to believe in the pass."

"I have then work on the theory that there is just as much chance for a forward pass to succeed as any other play if every player does his proper part in the execution of same. When a forward pass fails it is a frank admission that some player or players have slipped up in their task."

"With a great many teams the signal for a forward pass means that the ball must be hurled through the air regardless of consequences. Notre Dame players are not taught to obey that theory. They are instructed to make the play when there is a reasonable chance for its success."

"If the man with the ball sees that everyone is covered, it is often good judgment for him to retain possession of the ball and continue the play as a run."

"It is a mistake, I think, to spend much time in perfecting the pass from various formations and then regard the use of it much as we do dynamite, a handle-with-care method. The forward pass is more than a threat, merely to be used as a last resort when beaten. Every game presents innumerable spots where the forward pass is a good bet and that is the spot to use it."

Regardless of Rockne's modesty in questioning the statement that Notre Dame had a shade on most other eleven in the development of the pass, such is actually the case. And, as a matter of fact, this success dates right back to Rockne himself.

One of the first players to develop the pass, no coach is more familiar than Rockne with its possibilities. He is a past master still at receiving and hurling the pass, and when he wants to try something that is a bit different he can step on the gridiron and put his thoughts into execution.

"The game of touch-ball is another stunt that helps the perfection of play in the use of the forward pass," says Rockne.

Touch-ball is a Notre Dame specialty. It is played on all parts of the campus at all hours. The game combines football with basketball and no tackling or scrimmage is necessary. Mere touching of the ball while it is in the air or a player's hands constitutes a down.

WALTER SEELEY MAKING GOOD

In the communication referring to Walter Seeley, and his remarkable showing in his freshman year with Purdue University football squad, the correspondent erroneously stated that he was formerly a South Hi grad. It should have been Central Hi. The fact that he has made a high record at this institution, there should be much credit given to former Coach Detrick and Coach Thibert in bringing this young player into prominence. It is true that he will undoubtedly make the team in his sophomore year.

WITH THE CAGERS

Fifteen St. Rose High basketball candidates worked two hours at heavy scrimmage Monday afternoon at St. Rose gym, the first taste of the week's training program in preparation for Friday's game against Dunkirk High.

Loyle, McNamara, forwards, O'Connor, center, Capt. Wells and Lane, guards, constituting the varsity quintette, battled the entire practice session against all other material out for the Red and White court squad.

Surprising strength in the offensive combination of McNamara, Boyle and O'Connor, was brought to the fore. Signal formations were snapped with machine like accuracy and rapidity.

Practice sessions for the remainder of the week will be secret, according to an issue made by Coach Young, Monday.

St. John High school basketball team will play Lafayette next Friday evening. Lafayette this season has one of the best basketball teams in this section of the country, as four of their last year regular team is in school again. Last season Lafayette lost but four games out of eighteen played, two being to Lima teams, one to Ada and one to Bluffton. Lima Central vosed them out in the last minute of play 24 to 22, and Lima St. John's duplicated the same feat by a 18 to 15 score.

Coach Weitz, of St. Johns, will probably use the same lineup he had in the game at Delphos last Friday night, as this lineup of Farley and Kayser at forwards, Vansky center, and Johnson and Schrock at guards worked highly satisfactory, excepting shooting field goals and fouls. This weakness Coach Weitz will remedy, hoping to get a larger floor and drilling on high basket shooting. St. Johns is handicapped by a small floor, and the baskets are not of regulation height.

KENTON — (Special) — The local high school is looking forward to a successful basketball season. A very strong team is being lined up. The first game will be Dec. 7. Central of Lima will be one of the teams played.

PRUETT, RUTH'S JINX
Babe Ruth frankly admits he never faced a pitcher who troubled him quite as much "shucks" Pruett, of the St. Louis Browns. Pruett, with his peculiar slow take-away, has struck Ruth out about every other time he has faced him.

GROSS WINS DECISION

In his contest Monday night with Johnny Lucas, of St. Louis, prominent lightweight from that place, Jake Gross got the better of every round and was awarded the decision in the match which took place at the benefit show for Gus Bezenah, in Cincinnati.

Bowie Racing Begins With Big Card

BALTIMORE, Md. — The Prince George Handicap for three year olds at a mile and one furlong is the outstanding attraction on the opening card at Bowie track today. Thirteen horses are entered in the event. Among them is near Admiral Grayson's My Own, although it is doubtful whether he will start in view of the impending match with Zev. Other prominent entries are General Thatcher, Dunlin, Shuffin, Along, Gaddy, Flagstaff and Home Stretch.

Will Pick Men For Olympic Team

BY HENRY L. FARRELL
NEW YORK — "America may lose the championship at the next Olympic games. We don't want to, but if we must the main thing is to lose like gentlemen," Colonel Robert M. Thompson, president of the American Olympic committee, said last night at the annual dinner of the American Fencers' League.

In selecting the team that will carry the shield to Paris, Colonel Thompson said the committee was going to pick "men not only of good arms and legs, but of good hearts and hands also—men whom we can be proud as American citizens."

Colonel Thompson returned recently after spending several months in France obtaining quarters for the team.

The American committee has gone thoroughly into plans for care of the team in Paris. A staff of American ches will be taken along. To avoid crowding and inconvenience experienced on the trip to Belgium in 1920, the committee decided to take only athletes and persons directly connected with the management of the team to Paris on the steamer.

decision over Jack Palmer, Philadelphia, in eight rounds.

HARTFORD, Conn. — "Kid" Lewis, local bantamweight, and Ed More of Memphis, boxed 12 rounds to a draw.

BALTIMORE — Bobby Garcia of Camp Holabird, awarded decision over Frankie Rice, Baltimore on a foul in the ninth round.

DETROIT — Fanebo Villa, flyweight champion, bested Joie Schwartz of Minneapolis in 10 rounds.

GERMANY WANTS DICTATOR

Food More Than Hohenzollerns is People's Chief Worry

LABOR WILL FIGHT CHANGE

Government That Will Control Prices is Crying Need

BERLIN.—(United Press.)—Germany is crying for a dictator. The question of putting the Hohenzollerns or any other royal family on a restored German throne worries people outside of Germany much more than it does the Germans themselves.

What the Germans want is food. They think they may get it if a dictatorship is established. That is the situation as seen here today.

With meat costing more than a dollar a pound and bread and potatoes proportionately high and scarce, obtainable at any price, the average German only wants a strong central government which will bring prices under control, stabilize the currency and get work restarted.

Despite the return of Crown Prince Frederick Wilhelm and the readiness of Prince Rupprecht to ascend at least a Bavarian throne, the monarchists have not found a really desirable candidate to rally around.

If monarchists used arms, they would be met by arms, it has been said.

POSITION OF LABOR

The labor organizations frequently have let it be known, they would use all of their weapons against any attempt to overthrow the republic. Their general strike, it will be remembered, defeated the famous Kapp putsch in March, 1920.

It is considered questionable whether they would be able to employ the general strike now, because it might be a boom on themselves, but cutting off their food supplies from the countryside. The food supplies in the cities are constantly too short for a general strike to last long if it tied up transportation.

The Socialists and Democrats recently have offered to form "hundreds" under arms to defend the republic if necessary and have issued proclamations warning that they would do their utmost to preserve the republic.

If the republic collapses and goes into the hands of a dictator now, it is believed the dictatorship, like the monarchist regime that might possibly follow in its wake, would not last long.

It would be too strongly opposed by labor," it is said.

PRINCIPAL OBJECTIVES

The principal objectives of a reactionary regime, or dictatorship in Germany today are not so much restoration of the monarchy as restoration of pre-war conditions of labor. The industrialists are calling for a ten-hour or 12-hour day and they would only turn to a monarchy to solidify any gains they made in this direction—and if a suitable candidate appeared at the right moment, date apparently believed this winter will be the crucial test for the republic—unless unheard-of horrors lie beyond. The attempt to establish a reactionary regime is generally expected this winter. It is thought a nation-wide attempt at communism may precede it and give the reactionaries their excuse. The reactionaries would be able to induce the junkers—big land owners—to release food supplies and thus gain some popularity.

But when this popularity runs its course, the owner of the labor organizations will gradually show itself, it is believed, in slow but a sure swing back to the republic. (Copyright, 1923.)

BUDDING BLOSSOM

That all tempting flowers are not of this world is evidenced by this picture of Elizabeth HUN, Wichita Falls, Tex., wearing a costume in which she appeared recently.

VAN WERT NOTES

R. F. Hoblet has purchased at sheriff's sale 20 acres of land in Tully-twp. for $4,600, two-thirds its appraised value. Three years ago this farm was sold for $10,700, but the purchaser could not keep up his payments and the property reverted back to estate of John J. Singer, deceased. The executor disposed of it to close the estate.

The Albert Barnes farm in Williamsburg, Ind., has been placed on the market for sale by the sheriff, but no bids were offered.

The annual banquet and election of directors of the Y. W. C. A. of Van Wert will be held Tuesday, the 26th, at the dinner coming at 6 o'clock. After the report, a program of music, stunts, addresses by visiting speakers, and dramatics will be presented.

Mrs. Lydia Welker, 74, died Saturday morning at her home in Van Wert. She had been seriously ill several weeks with cancer. She was the wife of Milton Welker and was a native of Fairfield, Ohio, born April 12, 1849. Jan. 1, 1878, she married Milton Welker, who survives, with one daughter, Mrs. Sadie Knapp of Wichita, Kan., and five sons, Frank of North Adams, Mich., Benjamin of Reading, O., Fred of Lima, Joseph and Walter of Van Wert. The funeral was held Monday with Rev. M. M. Fieley officiating, burial in Woodland cemetery.

LAST PAVING JOB OF YEAR IS COMPLETED

DELPHOS.—Fourth-st. paved with asphalt block, was opened for traffic Monday, Franklin-st., Tuesday, the sanding having been completed last week. It is expected the street from Franklin-st. west to Main-st. will be open for traffic Friday, as the sanding and finishing work will have been completed.

The surplus whole blocks of asphalt have been taken to the city building for emergency use, should repairs be necessary in the street for any reason. Many of the half, three-quarter, and some of the whole blocks left from the job have been taken to residences for use in constructing walks in the yards.

This is the last paving job the city has this year, and no more will be undertaken until next spring. Then the alley between Main and Washington-sts. from Third-st. to the Pennsylvania tracks will be paved, bids having been received but the contract not let nor the material selected.

HARDING HIGHWAY ROUTE FROM DELPHOS DECIDED

DELPHOS.—The route of the Harding highway from Delphos west as far as Huntington, Ind., has been determined definitely. T. A. Gray and Wm. McCauley of Lima, representing the Harding Highway association, have been seeking the best route from Delphos, which was designed as the western terminal when the highway was first proposed, going over roads from Delphos to Van Wert, thence to Decatur, Ind., and on to Huntington. They have decided that from Delphos the highway will pass thru Van Wert, thence west to Decatur, and from Decatur to Huntington. The exact route from Huntington westward has not been determined, but it is thought that it will be included in the cities to be honored with this memorial to the late President Harding.

DELPHOS SCOUTS ARE KIWANIS CLUB GUESTS

DELPHOS.—An address by John R. Fletcher of Findlay, scout executive of Hancock co., and the attendance of 41 boy scouts featured the noonday luncheon meeting of the Kiwanis club Monday. Fletcher told of scout work and spoke particularly of the tests candidates for scout membership are required to take. Besides the old-time songs sung by the Kiwanis and scouts, special musical numbers were given by Frank Linder, banjo, the Belgian lion accordion, and Mrs. Rose Part, piano. Chicken dinner was served at the Breckenman house, Kiwanis headquarters. The scouts were guests of the club.

GET MARRIAGE LICENSE

DELPHOS.—A marriage license of interest to Delphos people was taken out at Van Wert Monday afternoon. The parties are Walter Bergeron, now of Columbus, formerly of this city and Miss Blanche Clark of Venedocia. Miss Clark was formerly a teacher in the Delphos schools. The wedding will be a part of the near future, it is understood.

"Y. W." CAMPAIGN BEGINS TUESDAY

$16,000 is Goal of Workers for Annual Budget

WILL REPORT EACH NOON

Enthusiastic Dinner Held Monday Night at Trinity

Annual campaign of the Young Women's Christian Association to raise $16,000 was formally started Monday night at a dinner-meeting of workers and guests of the association. Nearly 200 persons were present.

Mrs. H. M. Crawford, general chairman of the campaign, said the teams began soliciting donations Tuesday morning and will report every noon at a luncheon meeting to be held at the Y. W. C. A. Because of the fact that the teams will have been out but a few hours at noon Tuesday no reports will be made until Wednesday noon.

Workers' meeting held at Trinity M. E. church Monday night was full of enthusiasm. Mrs. John Harrison was responsible for the attractive looking dining room which had been cleverly decorated for the occasion. The tables were arranged in a triangle. Decorations consisted of blue and white balloons. Clever favors were arranged by Mrs. Harrison and placed at each chair.

Mrs. H. M. Crawford presided. Rev. Samuel Huecker, pastor of Market-st. Presbyterian church, gave the invocation.

GIRLS GIVE TALKS

Short talks by girls were given regarding the Y. W. C. A. and its work.

"Why we need $16,000" was answered for the girls by Gae Morton, representing the high schools; Fern O'Brien representing the gymnasium girls; Miss Florence Query the industrial girls of the Deloit-Wemmer north side factory, and Edna Reiser representing the business girls.

T. R. A. told how that association made up its budget and how to conduct the campaign. Mrs. Kant Hughes talked on the subject "How are we going to get ours?" Josephine Pearce, representing the trustees, Mrs. Clem Baxter, Mrs. S. M. Williams, Lulu Wale, Mrs. Gwen Pence and Ruth Seymour also spoke.

"Y" WORK PRAISED

Rev. Bruce Jacobs praised the work of the Y. W. C. A. He said it is a compliment to the church and the association never fails the church when it calls for help.

The girls of the "Y" said it stood for democracy, larger friendship, stronger bodies, chance of religious and social development and gives one a better knowledge of Jesus Christ.

THREE BURIED IN SEWER TUNNEL

Milwaukee Workers Believed Killed by Cave-in MILWAUKEE, Wis. — (United Press) — Three men, entombed in a sewer tunnel 40 feet below the surface, are believed to be dead here today. The men entombed are: Steve Barthowick, John Kararek and Joseph Gaspar.

The men were working 300 feet from the mouth of the tunnel when the walls collapsed, burying them. Police and firemen rescue squads succeeded in saving to other men, but seriously injured. These men had not reached the bottom of the excavation when the walls of the ditch gave way.

The men were laborers employed by a plumbing contracting concern which is digging the tunnel for the Metropolitan Sewerage Commission of Milwaukee-co. They were all members of the night shift and were just ready to come to the surface following their night's work when the accident occurred.

CITY HEARS NOTHING ON DEFAULTED SEWER WORK

Up until noon Tuesday no word had been received at city hall from representatives of the Royal Indemnity Co. as to what the company was doing about completing the Jones intercepting sewer contract.

City Manager Bingham said that he has not heard a thing in any way as to the intentions of the company beyond the statement of Glenn C. Webb, local agent, that the contract will be completed. Bonding of the contractors is one of the problems which are said to be holding back a decision on the completion of the job.
